Clause 6	Insertion of new s 56A	1
	After section 56—	2
	insert—	3
	56A Replacement of s 241A	4
	Section 241A—	5
	omit, insert—	6
	241A Proceedings for indictable offences	7
	(1) An offence against part 7, division 10 or section 196A(1) is an indictable offence that is a misdemeanour.	8 9 10
	(2) Subject to subsection (3), a proceeding for an indictable offence is to be heard and decided summarily.	11 12 13
	(3) A Magistrates Court must abstain from dealing summarily with a charge of an indictable offence—	14 15 16
	(a) if satisfied, on an application made by the prosecution or the defence, that because of exceptional circumstances the charge should not be heard and decided summarily; or	17 18 19 20 21
	Examples of exceptional circumstances—	22
	1 There is sufficient connection between the offence the subject of the charge, and other offences allegedly committed by the defendant and to be tried on indictment, to allow all the offences to be tried together.	23 24 25 26 27 28
	2 There is an important issue of law involved.	29 30
	3 An issue of general community importance or public interest is involved, or the holding of a trial by jury is justified in order to establish contemporary community standards.	31 32 33 34 35

- (b) if satisfied, at any stage and after hearing any submissions by the prosecution and defence, that because of the nature or seriousness of the offence or any other relevant consideration the defendant, if convicted, may not be adequately punished on summary conviction.
- (4) If a Magistrates Court abstains from jurisdiction—
- (a) the court must stop treating the proceeding as a proceeding to hear and decide the charge summarily; and
- (b) the proceeding for the charge must be conducted as a committal proceeding; and
- (c) a plea of the defendant at the start of the hearing must be disregarded; and
- (d) the evidence already heard by the court is taken to be evidence in the committal proceeding; and
- (e) the Justices Act 1886, section 104 must be complied with for the committal proceeding.
- (5) The maximum penalty that may be imposed on a summary conviction for an indictable offence is 165 penalty units.
- (6) A Magistrates Court that summarily deals with a charge of an indictable offence—
- (a) must be constituted by a magistrate; and
- (b) has jurisdiction despite the time that has elapsed from the time when the matter of complaint of the charge arose.

141A Mandatory notifications by treating practitioners of sexual misconduct	1 2
(1) This section applies to a registered health practitioner (the treating practitioner) who, in the course of providing a health service to another registered health practitioner (the second health practitioner), forms a reasonable belief that the second health practitioner has engaged, is engaging, or is at risk of engaging, in sexual misconduct in connection with the practice of the practitioner's profession.	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11
(2) The treating practitioner must, as soon as practicable after forming the reasonable belief, notify the National Agency of the second health practitioner's conduct that forms the basis of the reasonable belief.	12 13 14 15 16
Note—	17
See section 237 which provides protection from civil, criminal and administrative liability for persons who, in good faith, make a notification under this Law.	18 19 20
(3) A contravention of subsection (2) by the treating practitioner does not constitute an offence but may constitute behaviour for which action may be taken under this Part.	21 22 23 24
(4) This section applies subject to section 141C.	25
141B Mandatory notifications by treating practitioners of substantial risk of harm to public	26 27 28
(1) Subsection (2) applies to a registered health practitioner (the treating practitioner) who, in the course of providing a health service to another registered health practitioner (the second health practitioner), forms a reasonable belief that the second health practitioner is placing the public at substantial risk of harm by practising the profession—	29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36

- (a) while the practitioner has an impairment; or 1
- (b) while intoxicated by alcohol or drugs; or 2
- (c) in a way that constitutes a significant 3 departure from accepted professional 4 standards. 5
- (2) The treating practitioner must, as soon as 6
practicable after forming the reasonable belief, 7
notify the National Agency of the second health 8
practitioner's conduct that forms the basis of the 9
reasonable belief. 10
- Note—* 11
- See section 237 which provides protection from civil, 12
criminal and administrative liability for persons who, in 13
good faith, make a notification under this Law. 14
- (3) Subsection (4) applies to a registered health 15 practitioner (also the treating practitioner) who, 16 in the course of providing a health service to a 17
student, forms a reasonable belief that the student 18 has an impairment that, in the course of the 19 student undertaking clinical training, may place 20
the public at substantial risk of harm. 21
- (4) The treating practitioner must, as soon as 22
practicable after forming the reasonable belief, 23
notify the National Agency of the student's 24
impairment. 25
- Note—* 26
- See section 237 which provides protection from civil, 27
criminal and administrative liability for persons who, in 28
good faith, make a notification under this Law. 29
- (5) In considering whether the public is being, or may 30
be, placed at substantial risk of harm, the treating 31 practitioner may consider the following matters 32 relating to an impairment of the second health 33
practitioner or student— 34
- (a) the nature, extent and severity of the 35
impairment; 36

[s 19]

- (b) the extent to which the second health practitioner or student is taking, or is willing to take, steps to manage the impairment; 1
2
3
 - (c) the extent to which the impairment can be managed with appropriate treatment; 4 5
 - (d) any other matter the treating practitioner considers is relevant to the risk of harm the impairment poses to the public. 6 7
8
 - (6) A contravention of subsection (2) or (4) by the treating practitioner does not constitute an offence but may constitute behaviour for which action may be taken under this Part. 9 10
12
 - (7) This section applies subject to section 141C. 13
- 141C When practitioner does not form reasonable belief in course of providing health service 14 15
- (1) This section applies if a registered health practitioner (the first health practitioner) forms a reasonable belief about— 16
17
18
 - (a) a matter, relating to another registered health practitioner (the second health practitioner), mentioned in section 141A(1) or 141B(1); or 19 20
21
22
 - (b) a matter, relating to a student, mentioned in section 141B(3). 23 24
 - (2) For this Division, the first health practitioner is taken not to form the reasonable belief in the course of providing a health service to the second health practitioner or student if— 25
26
27
28
 - (a) the first health practitioner— 29
 - (i) is employed or otherwise engaged by an insurer that provides professional indemnity insurance that relates to the second health practitioner or student; 30
31
32
33
and 34

- (ii) forms the reasonable belief about the matter as a result of a disclosure made by a person to the first health practitioner in the course of a legal proceeding or the provision of legal advice arising from the insurance policy; or
- (b) the first health practitioner forms the reasonable belief in the course of providing advice in relation to the matter for the purposes of a legal proceeding or the preparation of legal advice; or
- (c) the first health practitioner is a legal practitioner and forms the reasonable belief in the course of providing legal services to the second health practitioner or student in relation to a legal proceeding or the preparation of legal advice in which the matter is an issue; or
- (d) the first health practitioner—
- (i) forms the reasonable belief in the course of exercising functions as a member of a quality assurance committee, council or other body approved or authorised under an Act of a participating jurisdiction; and
- (ii) is unable to disclose the information that forms the basis of the reasonable belief because a provision of that Act prohibits the disclosure of the information; or
- (e) the first health practitioner knows, or reasonably believes, the National Agency has been notified of the matter that forms the basis of the reasonable belief.
