 - (ii) the authorised officer must complete a form of warrant, including by writing on it the information mentioned in section 165(2) provided by the magistrate.
- (3) The copy of the warrant mentioned in subsection (2)(a), or the form of the warrant completed under subsection (2)(b), (in either case the duplicate warrant), is a duplicate of, and as effectual as, the original warrant.
- (4) The authorised officer must, at the first reasonable opportunity, send to the magistrate—
 - (a) the written application complying with section 164(2) and (3); and

[s 168]

- (b) if the authorised officer completed a form of warrant under subsection (2)(b)—the completed form of warrant.
- (5) The magistrate must keep the original warrant and, on receiving the documents under subsection (4)—
 - (a) attach the documents to the original warrant; and
 - (b) give the original warrant and documents to the clerk of the court of the relevant magistrates court.
- (6) Despite subsection (3), if—
 - (a) an issue arises in a proceeding about whether an exercise of a power was authorised by a warrant issued under this section; and
 - (b) the original warrant is not produced in evidence;the onus of proof is on the person relying on the lawfulness of the exercise of the power to prove a warrant authorised the exercise of the power.
- (7) This section does not limit section 164.
- (8) In this section—
relevant magistrates court, in relation to a magistrate, means the Magistrates Court that the magistrate constitutes under the Magistrates Act 1991.

168 Defect in relation to a warrant

- (1) A warrant is not invalidated by a defect in—
 - (a) the warrant; or
 - (b) compliance with this subdivision;unless the defect affects the substance of the warrant in a material particular.
- (2) In this section—
warrant includes a duplicate warrant mentioned in section 167(3).

Subdivision 2 Entry procedure

169 Entry procedure

- (1) This section applies if an authorised officer is intending to enter a place under a warrant issued under this division.
- (2) Before entering the place, the authorised officer must do or make a reasonable attempt to do the following things—
 - (a) identify himself or herself to a person who is an occupier of the place and is present by producing the authorised officer's identity card or another document evidencing the authorised officer's appointment;
 - (b) give the person a copy of the warrant;
 - (c) tell the person the authorised officer is permitted by the warrant to enter the place;
 - (d) give the person an opportunity to allow the authorised officer immediate entry to the place without using force.
- (3) However, the authorised officer need not comply with subsection (2) if the authorised officer believes on reasonable grounds that entry to the place without compliance is required to ensure the execution of the warrant is not frustrated.
- (4) In this section—

warrant includes a duplicate warrant mentioned in section 167(3).

Part 3 Other authorised officers' powers and related matters

Division 1 Stopping or moving vehicles

170 Application of division

This division applies if an authorised officer reasonably suspects, or is aware, that a thing in or on a vehicle may provide evidence of the commission of—

- (a) an animal welfare offence; or
- (b) another offence against this Act or the Racing Act.

171 Power to stop or move

- (1) If the vehicle is moving, the authorised officer may, to exercise his or her powers, signal or otherwise direct the person in control of the vehicle to stop the vehicle and to bring the vehicle to, and keep it at, a convenient place within a reasonable distance to allow the authorised officer to exercise the powers.
- (2) If the vehicle is stopped, the authorised officer may direct the person in control of the vehicle—
 - (a) not to move it until the authorised officer has exercised the authorised officer's powers; or
 - (b) to move the vehicle to, and keep it at, a stated reasonable place to allow the authorised officer to exercise the powers.
- (3) When giving the direction under subsection (2), the authorised officer must give the person in control an offence warning for the direction.

172 Identification requirements if vehicle moving

- (1) This section applies if the authorised officer proposes to give a direction under section 171(1) and the vehicle is moving.
- (2) The authorised officer must clearly identify himself or herself as an authorised officer exercising the authorised officer's powers.

Examples—

- 1 If the authorised officer is in a moving vehicle, he or she may use a loudhailer to identify himself or herself as an authorised officer exercising powers.
 - 2 If the authorised officer is standing at the side of the road, he or she may use a sign to identify himself or herself as an authorised officer exercising powers.
- (3) When the vehicle stops, the authorised officer must—
 - (a) have with him or her the authorised officer's identity card; and
 - (b) immediately produce the identity card for the inspection of the person in control of the vehicle.
 - (4) Subsection (3) applies despite section 150.

173 Failure to comply with direction

- (1) The person in control of the vehicle must comply with a direction under section 171 unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—200 penalty units.

- (2) It is a reasonable excuse for the person not to comply with a direction if—
 - (a) the vehicle was moving and the authorised officer did not comply with section 172; or
 - (b) to comply immediately would have endangered someone else or caused loss or damage to property, and the person complies as soon as it is practicable to do so.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit subsection (1).

[s 174]

- (4) A person does not commit an offence against subsection (1) if—
 - (a) the direction the person fails to comply with is given under section 171(2); and
 - (b) the person is not given an offence warning for the direction.

Division 2 General powers of authorised officers after entering places

Example of measures—

 - (j) take to, into or onto the place and use any person, equipment and materials the authorised officer reasonably requires for exercising the authorised officer's powers under this division;
 - (k) remain at the place for the time necessary to achieve the purpose of the entry.
- (2) The authorised officer may take a necessary step to allow the exercise of a general power.

Example of a step—

moving a licensed animal at the place to allow a sample to be taken from the animal

- (3) If the authorised officer takes a document from the place to copy it, the authorised officer must copy the document and return it to the place as soon as practicable.
- (4) If the authorised officer takes from the place an article or device reasonably capable of producing a document from an electronic document to produce the document, the authorised officer must produce the document and return the article or device to the place as soon as practicable.

[s 175]

- (5) If the authorised officer does not believe that he or she is appropriately qualified to take a thing or sample under subsection (1)(f), the authorised officer must arrange for an appropriately qualified person (a qualified person) to take the sample or thing for the authorised officer.
- (6) If the authorised officer or qualified person takes for examination a thing, or a sample of or from a thing, under subsection (1)(f), the authorised officer must—
 - (a) give a receipt for the thing or sample to the person in charge of the animal or place from which it was taken; and
 - (b) for a thing or sample with an intrinsic value—at the end of 6 months after the thing or sample was taken, return it to the person who appears to be the owner of it or the person in charge of the animal or place from which it was taken.

Note—

See division 3 for what happens if the sample or thing can not be returned to its owner.

- (7) However, if for any reason it is not practicable to comply with subsection (6)(a), the authorised officer must leave the receipt at the place in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way.
- (8) The receipt mentioned in subsection (6)(a) must be in the approved form.

- (2) When making the help requirement, the authorised officer must give the person an offence warning for the requirement.

177 Offence to contravene help requirement

- (1) A person of whom a help requirement has been made must comply with the requirement unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—200 penalty units.

- (2) It is a reasonable excuse for an individual not to comply with a help requirement if complying might tend to incriminate the individual or expose the individual to a penalty.
- (3) However, subsection (2) does not apply if a document or information the subject of the help requirement is required to be held or kept by the defendant under this Act or the Racing Act.

Note—

See, however, section 210.

Division 3 Seizure by authorised officers and forfeiture

Subdivision 1 Power to seize

178 Seizing evidence at a place that may be entered without consent or warrant

An authorised officer who enters a place the authorised officer may enter under this Act without the consent of an occupier of the place and without a warrant may seize a thing at the place if the authorised officer reasonably believes the thing is evidence of—

- (a) an animal welfare offence; or
- (b) another offence against this Act or the Racing Act.

179 Seizing evidence at a place that may be entered only with consent or warrant

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) an authorised officer is authorised to enter a place only with the consent of an occupier of the place or a warrant; and
- (b) the authorised officer enters the place after obtaining the consent or under a warrant.

(2) If the authorised officer enters the place with the occupier's consent, the authorised officer may seize a thing at the place only if—

- (a) the authorised officer reasonably believes the thing is evidence of—
 - (i) an animal welfare offence; or
 - (ii) another offence against this Act or the Racing Act; and

- (b) seizure of the thing is consistent with the purpose of entry as explained to the occupier when asking for the occupier's consent.
- (3) If the authorised officer enters the place under a warrant, the authorised officer may seize the evidence for which the warrant was issued.
- (4) The authorised officer may also seize anything else at the place if the authorised officer reasonably believes—
 - (a) the thing is evidence of—
 - (i) an animal welfare offence; or
 - (ii) another offence against this Act or the Racing Act; and
 - (b) the seizure is necessary to prevent the thing being hidden, lost or destroyed.
- (5) The authorised officer may also seize a thing at the place if the authorised officer reasonably believes it has just been used in committing—
 - (a) an animal welfare offence; or
 - (b) another offence against this Act or the Racing Act.

180 Seizure of property subject to security

- (1) An authorised officer may seize a thing, and exercise powers relating to the thing, despite a lien or other security over the thing claimed by another person.
- (2) However, the seizure does not affect the other person's claim to the lien or other security against a person other than the authorised officer or a person acting under the direction or authority of the authorised officer.

Subdivision 2 Powers to support seizure

181 Power to secure seized thing

- (1) Having seized a thing under this division, an authorised officer may—
 - (a) leave it at the place where it was seized (the place of seizure) and take reasonable action to restrict access to it; or
 - (b) move it from the place of seizure.
- (2) For subsection (1)(a), the authorised officer may, for example—
 - (a) seal the thing, or the entrance to the place of seizure, and mark the thing or place to show access to the thing or place is restricted; or
 - (b) for equipment—make it inoperable; or Example—
make it inoperable by dismantling it or removing a component without which the equipment can not be used
 - (c) require a person the authorised officer reasonably believes is in control of the place or thing to do an act mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) or anything else an authorised officer could do under subsection (1)(a).

182 Offence to contravene seizure requirement

A person must comply with a requirement made of the person under section 181(2)(c) unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—300 penalty units.

183 Offence to interfere

- (1) If access to a seized thing is restricted under section 181, a person must not tamper with the thing or with anything used to restrict access to the thing without—

- (a) an authorised officer's approval; or
- (b) a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—400 penalty units.

- (2) If access to a place is restricted under section 181, a person must not enter the place in contravention of the restriction or tamper with anything used to restrict access to the place without—

- (a) an authorised officer's approval; or
- (b) a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—400 penalty units.

Subdivision 3 Safeguards for seized things

184 Receipt and information notice for seized thing

- (1) This section applies if an authorised officer seizes anything under this division unless—

- (a) the authorised officer reasonably believes there is no-one apparently in possession of the thing or the thing has been abandoned; or
- (b) because of the condition, nature and value of the thing it would be unreasonable to require the authorised officer to comply with this section.

- (2) The authorised officer must, as soon as practicable after seizing the thing, give an owner or person in control of the thing before it was seized—

- (a) a receipt for the thing that generally describes the thing and its condition; and

[s 185]

- (b) an information notice about the decision to seize it.
- (3) However, if an owner or person from whom the thing is seized is not present when it is seized, the receipt and information notice may be given by leaving them in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way at the place at which the thing is seized.
- (4) The receipt and information notice may—
 - (a) be given in the same document; and
 - (b) relate to more than 1 seized thing.
- (5) The authorised officer may delay giving the receipt and information notice if the authorised officer reasonably suspects giving them may frustrate or otherwise hinder an investigation by the authorised officer under this Act or the Racing Act.
- (6) However, the delay may be only for so long as the authorised officer continues to have the reasonable suspicion and remains in the vicinity of the place at which the thing was seized to keep it under observation.

185 Access to seized thing

- (1) Until a seized thing is forfeited or returned, the authorised officer who seized the thing must allow an owner of the thing—
 - (a) to inspect it at any reasonable time and from time to time; and
 - (b) if it is a document—to copy it.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to allow the inspection or copying.
- (3) The inspection or copying must be allowed free of charge.

186 Return of seized thing

- (1) This section applies if a seized thing is not—

- (a) forfeited or transferred under subdivision 4 or 5; or
 - (b) subject to a disposal order under division 4.
- (2) As soon as the commissioner stops being satisfied there are reasonable grounds for retaining the thing, the commissioner must return it to its owner.
- (3) If the thing is not returned to its owner within 3 months after it was seized, the owner may apply to the commissioner for its return.
- (4) Within 30 days after receiving the application, the commissioner must—
 - (a) if the commissioner is satisfied there are reasonable grounds for retaining the thing and decides to retain it—give the owner an information notice about the decision, including the grounds for retaining the thing; or
 - (b) otherwise—return the thing to the owner.
- (5) For this section, there are reasonable grounds for retaining a seized thing if—
 - (a) the thing is being, or is likely to be, examined; or
 - (b) the thing is needed, or may be needed, for the purposes of—
 - (i) a proceeding for an animal welfare offence, or another offence against this Act or the Racing Act, that is likely to be started or that has been started but not completed; or
 - (ii) an appeal from a decision in a proceeding for an animal welfare offence or another offence against this Act or the Racing Act; or
 - (c) it is not unlawful for the owner to possess the thing.
- (6) Subsection (5) does not limit the grounds that may be reasonable grounds for retaining the seized thing.

[s 187]

- (7) Nothing in this section affects a lien or other security over the seized thing.
- (8) In this section—
examine includes analyse, test, account, measure, weigh, grade, gauge and identify.

Subdivision 4 Forfeiture

187 Forfeiture by commissioner decision

- (1) The commissioner may decide a seized thing is forfeited to the State if an authorised officer—
 - (a) after making reasonable inquiries, can not find an owner; or
 - (b) after making reasonable efforts, can not return it to an owner; or
 - (c) reasonably believes it is necessary to keep the thing to prevent it being used to commit the offence for which it was seized.
- (2) However, the authorised officer is not required to—
 - (a) make inquiries if it would be unreasonable to make inquiries to find an owner; or
 - (b) make efforts if it would be unreasonable to make efforts to return the thing to an owner.

Example for paragraph (b)—

the owner of the thing has migrated to another country
- (3) Regard must be had to the thing's condition, nature and value in deciding—
 - (a) whether it is reasonable to make inquiries or efforts; and
 - (b) if inquiries or efforts are made—what inquiries or efforts, including the period over which they are made, are reasonable.

188 Information notice about forfeiture decision

- (1) If the commissioner decides under section 187(1) to forfeit a thing, the commissioner must as soon as practicable give a person who owned the thing immediately before the forfeiture (the former owner) an information notice about the decision.
- (2) If the decision was made under section 187(1)(a) or (b), the information notice may be given by leaving it at the place where the thing was seized, in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way.
- (3) The information notice must state that the former owner may apply for a stay of the decision if he or she appeals against the decision.
- (4) However, subsections (1) to (3) do not apply if—
 - (a) the decision was made under section 187(1)(a) or (b); and
 - (b) the place where the thing was seized is—
 - (i) a public place; or
 - (ii) a place where the notice is unlikely to be read by the former owner.

Subdivision 5 Dealing with property forfeited or transferred to the State

189 When thing becomes property of the State

A thing becomes the property of the State if—

- (a) the thing is forfeited to the State under section 187(1); or
- (b) the owner of the thing and the State agree, in writing, to the transfer of the ownership of the thing to the State.

[s 190]

190 How property may be dealt with

- (1) This section applies if, under section 189, a thing becomes the property of the State.
- (2) The commissioner may deal with the thing as the commissioner considers appropriate, including, for example, by destroying it or giving it away.
- (3) The commissioner must not deal with the thing in a way that could prejudice the outcome of an appeal against the forfeiture under this Act.
- (4) If the commissioner sells the thing, the commissioner may, after deducting the following costs, return the proceeds of the sale to the former owner of the thing—
 - (a) the costs of the sale;
 - (b) any costs the commission may recover from a person under section 237.
- (5) This section is subject to any disposal order made for the thing.

Division 4 Disposal orders

191 Disposal order

- (1) This section applies if a person is convicted of an animal welfare offence or another offence against this Act or the Racing Act.
- (2) The court may make an order (a disposal order), on its own initiative or on an application by the prosecution, for the disposal of any of the following things owned by the person—
 - (a) anything that was the subject of, or used to commit, the offence;
 - (b) another thing the court considers is likely to be used by the person or another person in committing a further animal welfare offence or another further offence against this Act or the Racing Act.

- (3) The court may make a disposal order for a thing—
 - (a) whether or not it has been seized under this Act; and
 - (b) if the thing has been seized—whether or not it has been returned to the former owner.
- (4) In deciding whether to make a disposal order for a thing, the court—
 - (a) may require notice to be given to anyone the court considers appropriate, including, for example, any person who may have any property in the thing; and
 - (b) must hear any submissions that any person claiming to have any property in the thing may wish to make.
- (5) The court may make any order to enforce the disposal order that it considers appropriate.
- (6) This section does not limit the court's powers under another law.

Division 5 Animal welfare directions

192 Application of division

- (1) This division applies if an authorised officer reasonably believes—
 - (a) a person has committed, is committing, or is about to commit, an animal welfare offence; or
 - (b) an animal—
 - (i) is not being cared for properly; or
 - (ii) is experiencing undue pain; or
 - (iii) requires veterinary treatment; or
 - (iv) should not be used for work.

[s 193]

- (2) This division also applies if an animal has been seized under division 3, subdivision 1.
- (3) In this section—
veterinary treatment, of an animal, means—
 - (a) consultation by a person with a veterinary surgeon about the animal's condition; or
 - (b) performance by a veterinary surgeon of a medical or surgical procedure on the animal; or
 - (c) performance by someone other than a veterinary surgeon of a medical procedure of a curative or preventive nature on the animal if the procedure is to be performed under a veterinary surgeon's directions.

193 Power to give animal welfare direction

- (1) The authorised officer may give a written direction (an animal welfare direction) requiring stated action about the animal or its environment.
- (2) The direction may be given to—
 - (a) a person in charge of the animal; or
 - (b) a person whom the authorised officer reasonably believes is in charge of the animal; or
 - (c) if the animal has been seized under division 3, subdivision 1—
 - (i) a person who, immediately before the seizure, was a person in charge of the animal; or
 - (ii) a person whom the authorised officer reasonably believes was, immediately before the seizure, a person in charge of the animal.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (1), the direction may require any of the following actions to be taken—
 - (a) care for, or treat, the animal in stated way;

- (b) provide the animal with stated accommodation, food, rest, water or other living conditions;
 - (c) consult a veterinary surgeon about the animal's condition before a stated time;
 - (d) move the animal from the place where it is situated when the direction is given to another stated place for a purpose mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c);
 - (e) not to move the animal from the place where it is situated when the direction is given.
- (4) However, action may be required only if the authorised officer considers it to be necessary and reasonable in the interests of the animal's welfare.
- (5) The direction may state how the person given the direction may show that the stated action has been taken.

194 Requirements for giving animal welfare direction

- (1) An animal welfare direction must—
- (a) be in the approved form; and
 - (b) describe—
 - (i) the animal in a way that reasonably allows the person given the direction to identify it; or
 - (ii) if the direction is given because the authorised officer reasonably believes a person has committed, is committing or is about to commit, an animal welfare offence—the type of animal to which the offence relates; and
 - (c) state—
 - (i) each requirement; and
 - (ii) a time for the person to comply with each requirement; and
 - (d) include an information notice about the decision to give the direction.

[s 195]

- (2) Despite subsection (1)(a), an animal welfare direction may be given orally if—
 - (a) the authorised officer considers it to be in the interests of the animal's welfare to give the direction immediately; and
 - (b) for any reason it is not practicable to immediately give the direction in the approved form; and
 - (c) the authorised officer gives the person an offence warning.
- (3) If the direction is given orally, the authorised officer must confirm the direction by also giving it in the approved form as soon as practicable after giving it orally.
- (4) An animal welfare direction may state that an authorised officer proposes, at a stated time or at stated intervals, to enter the following where an animal the subject of the direction is kept at to check compliance with the direction—
 - (a) a vehicle of which the person is the person in control;
 - (b) another place of which the person is the occupier.

195 Failure to comply with animal welfare direction

A person to whom an animal welfare direction has been given must comply with the direction unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment.

Note—

If a corporation commits an offence against this provision, an executive officer of the corporation may be taken, under section 263, to have also committed the offence.

Division 6 Authorised officer's power to destroy animals

196 Power of destruction

An authorised officer may destroy an animal, or cause it to be destroyed, if—

- (a) an authorised officer has seized the animal under this part or the person in charge of the animal has given written consent to the destruction; and
- (b) the authorised officer reasonably believes that the animal is in pain to the extent that it is cruel to keep it alive.

Division 7 Other information-obtaining powers of authorised officers

197 Power to require name and address

(1) This section applies if an authorised officer—

- (a) finds a person committing—
 - (i) an animal welfare offence; or
 - (ii) another offence against this Act or the Racing Act; or
- (b) finds a person in circumstances that lead the authorised officer to reasonably suspect the person has just committed—
 - (i) an animal welfare offence; or
 - (ii) another offence against this Act or the Racing Act; or
- (c) has information that leads the authorised officer to reasonably suspect a person has just committed—

[s 198]

- (i) an animal welfare offence; or
 - (ii) another offence against this Act or the Racing Act.
- (2) The authorised officer may require the person to state the person's name and address.
- (3) The authorised officer may also require the person to give evidence of the correctness of the stated name or address if, in the circumstances, it would be reasonable to expect the person to—
 - (a) be in possession of evidence of the correctness of the stated name or address; or
 - (b) otherwise be able to give the evidence.
- (4) When making a personal details requirement, the authorised officer must give the person an offence warning for the requirement.
- (5) A requirement under this section is a personal details requirement.
- (6) In this section—

address, of a person, includes the person's residential and business address and, for a person temporarily in Queensland, includes the place where the person is living in Queensland.

198 Offence to contravene personal details requirement

- (1) A person of whom a personal details requirement has been made must comply with the requirement unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

- (2) A person may not be convicted of an offence under subsection (1) unless the person is found guilty of the offence in relation to which the personal details requirement was made.

199 Power to require production of document

- (1) An authorised officer may require a person to make available for inspection by an authorised officer, or to produce to the authorised officer for inspection, at a reasonable time and place nominated by the authorised officer—
 - (a) a document issued to the person under this Act or the Racing Act; or
 - (b) a document required to be kept by the person under this Act or the Racing Act; or
 - (c) if a document or information required to be kept by the person under this Act or the Racing Act is stored or recorded by means of a device—a document that is a clear written reproduction of the stored or recorded document or information.
- (2) A requirement under subsection (1) is a document production requirement.
- (3) For an electronic document, compliance with the document production requirement requires the making available or production of a clear written reproduction of the electronic document.
- (4) The authorised officer may keep the document to copy it.
- (5) If the authorised officer copies the document, or an entry in the document, the authorised officer may require the person responsible for keeping the document to certify the copy as a true copy of the document or entry.
- (6) A requirement under subsection (5) is a document certification requirement.
- (7) The authorised officer must return the document to the person as soon as practicable after copying it.
- (8) However, if a document certification requirement is made of a person, the authorised officer may keep the document until the person complies with the requirement.

[s 200]

200 Offence to contravene document production requirement

- (1) A person of whom a document production requirement has been made must comply with the requirement unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—200 penalty units.

- (2) It is not a reasonable excuse for a person to fail to comply with a document production requirement on the basis that complying with the requirement might tend to incriminate the person or expose the person to a penalty.

Note—

See, however, section 210.

- (3) The authorised officer must inform the person, in a way that is reasonable in the circumstances—
- (a) that the person must comply with the document production requirement even though complying might tend to incriminate the person or expose the person to a penalty; and
 - (b) that, under section 210, there is a limited immunity against the future use of the information or document given in compliance with the requirement.

A person may not apply for a review of, or an appeal against, an original decision unless there has been an internal review of the decision.

243 Applying for internal review of original decision

 - (c) be made to the commission within 14 days after—
 - (i) the day the person is given the information notice about the decision; or

- (3) The commission may, at any time, extend the time for making an internal review application.

[s 244]

244 Staying operation of original decision on internal review

- (1) The application for an internal review does not stay the original decision.
- (2) However, the applicant may immediately apply for a stay of the original decision to the relevant body.
- (3) The relevant body may stay the original decision to secure the effectiveness of the internal review and a later appeal to the court or external review by QCAT.
- (4) The relevant body may stay the operation of the internal review decision on conditions the relevant body considers appropriate.
- (5) The stay operates for the period decided by the relevant body.
- (6) The period of the stay must not extend past the time when the commission makes an internal review decision about the original decision and any later period the relevant body allows the applicant to enable the applicant to appeal against, or apply for an external review of, the internal review decision.
- (7) An internal review application affects the original decision, or carrying out of the decision, only if the decision is stayed.
- (8) In this section—
relevant body means—
 - (a) for an original decision to seize or forfeit an animal or
 - (b) for another original decision—QCAT.

- (3) Subsection (2)—
 - (a) applies despite the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 27A; and
 - (b) does not apply to an original decision made personally by the commissioner.
- (4) If the internal review decision confirms the original decision, the original decision is taken to be the internal review decision.
- (5) If the internal review decision amends the original decision, the original decision as amended is taken to be the internal review decision.
- (6) If the internal review decision is not the decision sought by the applicant and the original decision is a decision other than to seize or forfeit an animal or other thing, the review notice must comply with the QCAT Act, section 157(2).
- (7) If the internal review decision is not the decision sought by the applicant and the original decision is a decision to seize or forfeit an animal or other thing, the review notice must state the following information—
 - (a) the day the notice is given to the applicant;

- (2) The notice of appeal must state fully the grounds of the appeal.

- (3) The person must file the notice of appeal within 28 days after a review notice under section 245(1)(c) about the internal review decision is given to the person.
- (4) However, the court may, on application, at any time, extend the time for filing the notice of appeal.
- (5) The person must serve a copy of the notice of appeal, and any application to extend the time for filing a notice of appeal, on the commission.
- (6) The appeal does not—

248 Staying operation of internal review decision

- (1) The court may, by order, stay the operation of the internal review decision to secure the effectiveness of the appeal.

- (1) If the court substitutes another decision for the internal review decision—
 - (a) the substituted decision is taken to be a decision of the commission; and
 - (b) the commission may give effect to the decision as if—
 - (i) the decision were the original decision of the commission; and
 - (ii) no application for review or appeal had been made.
- (2) If the court sets aside the internal review decision and returns the matter to the commission with directions, any decision made by the commission in accordance with the directions may not be reviewed or appealed against under this division.

251 Particular powers about seizure or forfeiture

- (1) If the court confirms an internal review decision about forfeiture, it may also give directions about the sale or disposal of the animal or other thing.
