 - (b) if the notice is of the person's conviction—
 - (i) the existence of the conviction; and
 - (ii) when the offence was committed; and

- (iii) sufficient details to identify the offence; and
 - (iv) the sentence imposed on the person.
- (4) The Minister, chancellor or vice-chancellor must ensure a notice given to the Minister, chancellor or vice-chancellor under this section is destroyed as soon as practicable after it is no longer needed for the purposes of this Act.

66E Restrictions on disclosing protected information

- (1) This section applies to a person who possesses protected information because the person is or was—
- (a) the Minister; or
 - (b) a member; or
 - (c) a person involved in the administration of this Act, including, for example, as a public service employee; or
 - (d) a person helping the Minister, the council or a member to perform a function under this Act, including by providing administrative or other support.
- (2) The person must not, directly or indirectly, disclose the protected information to another person unless the disclosure is permitted under subsection (3) or (4).

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

- (3) The person may disclose the protected information to another person—
- (a) to the extent necessary to perform the person's functions under this Act; or

[s 20]

- (b) if the disclosure is authorised under an Act;
or
 - (c) if the disclosure is otherwise required or permitted by law; or
 - (d) if the person to whom the information
relates consents to the disclosure; or
 - (e) if the disclosure is in a form that does not identify the person to whom the information relates; or
 - (f) if the information is, or has been, lawfully accessible to the public.
- (4) Also, without limiting subsection (3), the Minister, chancellor or vice-chancellor may disclose the protected information to any of the following to the extent necessary for the proper
performance of the council's functions—
- (a) the council;
 - (b) a committee of the council;
 - (c) a member;
 - (d) another person.
- (5) In this section—
- function includes power.
- perform, a function, includes exercise a power.
- protected information means—
- (a) a report, or information contained in a report, given under section 66B; or
 - (b) a notice, or information contained in a notice, given under section 66D.

Division 3A Council membership—membership resolution

Subdivision 1 Preliminary

22A Definitions for division

In this division—

class, of elected members, see section 22F(1).

current membership resolution means the most recent membership resolution passed by the council.

effective day see section 22J(5).

end day, of a member, means the day the member's term of office ends.

membership class means—

(a) official members; or

[s 32]

- (b) appointed members; or
- (c) elected members who are members of the academic staff of the university; or
- (d) elected members who are members of the professional and technical staff of the university; or
- (e) elected members who are students; or
- (f) additional members.

membership resolution means a resolution under section 22J.

previous membership resolution means the last membership resolution passed by the council before the current membership resolution.

total number of members, in relation to a membership resolution, see section 22J(1)(a).

Subdivision 2 Council membership

22B Application of subdivision

This subdivision applies if the council passes a membership resolution.

22C Membership of council

The council consists of the following members—

- (a) official members;
- (b) appointed members;
- (c) elected members;
- (d) additional members.

22D Official members

The official members are—

- (a) the chancellor; and
- (b) the vice-chancellor; and
- (c) if the chairperson is not the vice-chancellor—the chairperson.

22E Appointed members

The Governor in Council may appoint a person as an appointed member for a term of not more than 4 years.

22F Elected members

- (1) The elected members consist of the following (each a class of elected members)—
 - (a) members of the academic staff of the university;
 - (b) members of the professional and technical staff of the university;
 - (c) students.
- (2) Each elected member is to be elected at a council election.
- (3) An elected member holds office for—
 - (a) if the elected member is a student—2 years; or
 - (b) otherwise—4 years.
- (4) An elected member's term of office starts—
 - (a) if the member is re-elected—on the day after the day when the member's previous term of office ends; or

[s 32]

- (b) otherwise—
 - (i) on the day after the day when the term of office of the member's predecessor ends; or
 - (ii) if subparagraph (i) does not apply—on a day fixed by the council.

22G Additional members

- (1) The council may appoint a person as an additional member for a term of not more than 4 years.
- (2) An additional member must not be a member of the university's staff or a student.
- (3) At least 2 of the additional members must be graduates of the university.
- (4) In this section—

university includes—

 - (a) the University College of Townsville established under the repealed University of Queensland Act 1965, section 27; and
 - (b) the James Cook University of North Queensland established under the repealed James Cook University of North Queensland Act 1970, section 4.

22H Particular provisions subject to sdiv 4

Sections 22E to 22G apply subject to subdivision 4.

22I When council is taken to be properly constituted

- (1) The council is taken to be properly constituted if the number of members holding office under this division is—

- (a) if the current membership resolution has taken effect for each membership class—more than half of the total number of members stated in the resolution; or

Note—

See section 22M for when a membership resolution takes effect for a membership class.

- (b) otherwise—more than half of the total number of members stated in the previous membership resolution.
- (2) For subsection (1), it does not matter whether the members are official, appointed, elected or additional members.

Subdivision 3 Membership resolutions

22J Council may pass resolution

- (1) The council may pass a resolution under this section stating all of the following—
 - (a) the number of members who are to constitute the council (the total number of members);
 - (b) the numbers of official, appointed, elected and additional members;
 - (c) the number of each class of elected members.
- (2) The total number of members must be at least 11, but not more than 21.
- (3) For subsection (1)(b), the numbers must be—
 - (a) for official members—2 or 3; and

- (b) for appointed members—at least 3, but not more than 6; and
 - (c) for elected members—at least 3 or 25% of the total number of members (whichever is the greater), but not more than 6; and
 - (d) for additional members—at least 3, but not more than 6.
- (4) For subsection (1)(c)—
 - (a) the number of each class of elected members must be at least 1; and
 - (b) the total number of elected members who are members of the university's staff must be greater than the number of elected members who are students.
- (5) The resolution must also state the day (the effective day) the resolution takes effect for each membership class other than appointed members.
- (6) For subsection (5), the effective day for a membership class must be a day when all of the following apply—
 - (a) the number of elected members holding office is at least 25% of the total number of members stated in the resolution;
 - (b) the number of elected members of each class holding office is at least 1;
 - (c) the total number of elected members holding office who are members of the university's staff is greater than the number of elected members holding office who are students.
- (7) The resolution must be passed by at least two-thirds of the total number of members stated in the current membership resolution.

Note—

See section 22N for when the council may not pass a further membership resolution.

22K Current members not affected

A membership resolution does not affect the term of office of a member who holds office when the resolution is passed.

22L Council must give Minister notice of membership resolution affecting class of appointed members

- (1) This section applies if the council passes a membership resolution in which the number stated for appointed members is greater than or less than the number stated for appointed members in the previous membership resolution.
- (2) The council must give the Minister a notice stating—
 - (a) the number stated in the membership resolution for appointed members; and
 - (b) the date the resolution was passed.
- (3) The notice must be given at least 6 months before the earliest end day of the appointed members who hold office when the membership resolution is passed.

22M When membership resolution takes effect for membership class

- (1) A membership resolution takes effect for a membership class, other than appointed members, on the effective day for the class.
- (2) A membership resolution takes effect for appointed members on the day, after the relevant end day, when the number of appointed members holding office is the number stated in the resolution for appointed members.

[s 32]

- (3) For subsection (2), the relevant end day is the latest end day of the appointed members who hold office when the membership resolution is passed.

22N Restriction on passing further membership resolution

The council may not pass a further membership resolution if the current membership resolution has not taken effect for each membership class.

Subdivision 4 Casual vacancies and related matters

22O Dealing with casual vacancy in office of elected member

- (1) This section applies if a casual vacancy arises, or will arise, in the office of an elected member, whether—
- (a) before a membership resolution takes effect for elected members of the class (the relevant class) of which the elected member was, or is, a member; or
 - (b) otherwise.
- (2) If the elected member was elected at a council election, the council must appoint to the office the one person, if any, who—
- (a) was a candidate for the office in the council election; and
 - (b) was not elected; and

- (c) received the highest number of votes of all the candidates who were not elected; and
 - (d) is eligible, under this Act, to be a member; and
 - (e) is willing to be, and available to perform the functions of, a member.
- (3) Subsections (4) to (6) apply if—
 - (a) the elected member was not elected at a council election; or
 - (b) no-one is eligible for appointment under subsection (2).
- (4) If the casual vacancy arises before a membership resolution takes effect for elected members of the relevant class, the council may appoint to the office a person who—
 - (a) is eligible, under this Act, to be a member; and
 - (b) is an eligible person for the relevant class; and
 - (c) otherwise meets any nomination requirements under the election policy for the relevant class.
- (5) If the casual vacancy does not arise before a membership resolution takes effect for elected members of the relevant class, a person is to be elected to the office at a council election.
- (6) Despite subsection (5), if the elected member was a student, the council may appoint to the office a student who—
 - (a) is eligible, under this Act, to be a member; and
 - (b) otherwise meets any nomination requirements under the election policy for the class of elected members mentioned in section 22F(1)(c).

- (7) A person appointed under subsection (2), (4) or (6) is taken, other than for subsection (2) or (3)(a), to have been elected at a council election.

22P Failure to elect elected members

- (1) This section applies if, by the end of the relevant day, insufficient persons are elected for a class of elected members to comply with the current membership resolution.
- (2) The Minister may appoint, as elected members for the class, the number of persons required to comply with the current membership resolution.
- (3) The council may, if asked by the Minister, nominate a person for appointment under subsection (2).
- (4) A person appointed under subsection (2) is taken, other than for section 22O(2) or (3)(a), to have been elected at a council election for the class of elected members.
- (5) This section applies to the periodic election of members and an election required because of a casual vacancy.
- (6) In this section—
relevant day, in relation to a class of elected members, means the last day of the period notified under the election policy for the holding of a council election for an elected member of the class.

22Q Casual vacancies

A person appointed or elected to fill a casual vacancy in the office of a member is appointed or elected for the balance of the term of office of the person's predecessor.

49 Insertion of new ss 62D and 62E

After section 62C—
insert—

62D Requirement to disclose particular matters

- (1) This section applies if a person who is a member—
 - (a) is disqualified from managing corporations under the Corporations Act, part 2D.6; or
 - (b) is convicted of an indictable offence mentioned in section 24(1)(i) or 40C(1)(b).
- (2) The person must, unless the person has a reasonable excuse, immediately give notice of the disqualification or conviction to—
 - (a) if the person is the chancellor when disqualified or convicted—the vice-chancellor; or
 - (b) if the person is an appointed member when disqualified or convicted—the Minister; or
 - (c) otherwise—the chancellor.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

- (3) The notice must include the following information—
 - (a) if the notice is of the person's disqualification—
 - (i) the existence of the disqualification; and
 - (ii) when the disqualification took effect; and
 - (iii) sufficient details to identify the grounds for the disqualification;
 - (b) if the notice is of the person's conviction—
 - (i) the existence of the conviction; and
 - (ii) when the offence was committed; and

- (iii) sufficient details to identify the offence; and
 - (iv) the sentence imposed on the person.
- (4) The Minister, chancellor or vice-chancellor must ensure a notice given to the Minister, chancellor or vice-chancellor under this section is destroyed as soon as practicable after it is no longer needed for the purposes of this Act.

62E Restrictions on disclosing protected information

- (1) This section applies to a person who possesses protected information because the person is or was—
- (a) the Minister; or
 - (b) a member; or
 - (c) a person involved in the administration of this Act, including, for example, as a public service employee; or
 - (d) a person helping the Minister, the council or a member to perform a function under this Act, including by providing administrative or other support.
- (2) The person must not, directly or indirectly, disclose the protected information to another person unless the disclosure is permitted under subsection (3) or (4).

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

- (3) The person may disclose the protected information to another person—
- (a) to the extent necessary to perform the person's functions under this Act; or

[s 50]

- (b) if the disclosure is authorised under an Act;
or
 - (c) if the disclosure is otherwise required or
permitted by law; or
 - (d) if the person to whom the information
relates consents to the disclosure; or
 - (e) if the disclosure is in a form that does not
identify the person to whom the information
relates; or
 - (f) if the information is, or has been, lawfully
accessible to the public.
- (4) Also, without limiting subsection (3), the Minister, chancellor or vice-chancellor may disclose the protected information to any of the following to the extent necessary for the proper
performance of the council's functions—
- (a) the council;
 - (b) a committee of the council;
 - (c) a member;
 - (d) another person.
- (5) In this section—
- function* includes power.
- perform*, a function, includes exercise a power.
- protected information* means—
- (a) a report, or information contained in a report, given under section 62B; or
 - (b) a notice, or information contained in a
notice, given under section 62D.

50 Insertion of new pt 8, div 3

Part 8—

insert—

Division 3 Transitional provisions for University Legislation Amendment Act 2017

79 Definitions for division

In this division—

previous, for a provision of this Act, means the provision as in force from time to time before the commencement.

transition period means the period—

- (a) starting when the council passes its first membership resolution; and
- (b) ending when the membership resolution has taken effect for each membership class.

80 Particular references to council election

A reference in the following provisions to a council election includes a reference to a ballot under previous section 15(3)—

- (a) section 20A(2) and (3)(a);
- (b) section 22O(2) and (3)(a);
- (c) schedule 2, definition elected member.

81 Majority required for first membership resolution

- (1) This section applies for the passing of the first resolution under section 22J.
- (2) Despite section 22J(7), the resolution must be passed by at least two-thirds of the total number of members provided for under sections 13 to 16 as in force immediately before the resolution is voted on.

[s 50]

82 Council must give Minister notice of first membership resolution

- (1) The council must, after passing the first membership resolution, give the Minister a notice stating—
 - (a) the number stated in the resolution for appointed members; and
 - (b) the date the resolution was passed.
- (2) The notice must be given at least 6 months before the earliest end day of the appointed members who hold office when the membership resolution is passed.

83 Membership and constitution of council during transition period

- (1) A person who was an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(f) when the council passed its first membership resolution continues to hold office as an elected member until—
 - (a) the term for which the person held office under section 19(1) ends; or
 - (b) the person's office sooner becomes vacant under section 24.
- (2) Despite sections 22C(c) and 22F(1), during the transition period the council also consists of any person—
 - (a) whose office as an elected member is continued under subsection (1); or

- (b) who is appointed under section 85 to the office of an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(f).
- (3) Despite section 22I(1)(b), the council is taken to be properly constituted during the transition period if it has the number of members provided for under section 17 as in force immediately before the start of the transition period.

84 Convocation elected members to be disregarded for s 22J(6)(a)

During the transition period, the following persons must be disregarded in calculating the number of elected members for section 22J(6)(a)—

- (a) a person whose office as an elected member is continued under section 83(1);
- (b) a person who is appointed under section 85 to the office of an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(f).

85 Dealing with casual vacancy in office of convocation elected member at start of, or during, transition period

- (1) This section applies if a casual vacancy in the office of an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(f)—
 - (a) exists at the start of the transition period; or
 - (b) arises during the transition period.
- (2) If the elected member was elected by a ballot under previous section 15(3) or at a council election, the council may appoint to the office the one person, if any, who—

[s 50]

- (a) was a candidate for the office in the ballot or election; and
 - (b) was not elected; and
 - (c) received the highest number of votes of all the candidates who were not elected; and
 - (d) is eligible, under this Act, to be a member; and
 - (e) is willing to be, and available to perform the functions of, a member.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if—
 - (a) the elected member was not elected by a ballot under previous section 15(3) or at a council election; or
 - (b) no-one is eligible for appointment under subsection (2).
- (4) The council may appoint to the office a member of the convocation who—
 - (a) is eligible under this Act to be a member; and
 - (b) otherwise meets any nomination requirements under the election policy for the class of elected members mentioned in section 15(2)(f).
- (5) A person appointed under this section—
 - (a) is appointed for the balance of the term of office of the person's predecessor; and
 - (b) is taken, other than for subsection (2) or (3)(a), to have been elected at a council election.

86 Repeal of university statutes

- (1) This section applies to a university statute made under previous section 57 that was in force immediately before the commencement.

- (2) To remove any doubt, it is declared that, on the commencement, the university statute is repealed.
