Subdivision 2 Application for suspension by one party

[s 7]

32A Application for suspension of registered training contract by one party to the contract

- (1) A party to a registered training contract may apply to the chief executive to suspend the contract for a period not exceeding 1 year if the party reasonably believes that the other party to the contract can not, under section 30, agree to a proposed suspension.
- (2) The application must be in the approved form and state the following—
 - (a) the reasons for the proposed suspension, including why the applicant believes the other party can not agree to the suspension;
 - (b) the period of the proposed suspension;
 - (c) the day the proposed suspension is to take effect, being not less than 7 days after the application is given to the chief executive.
- (3) If the apprentice or trainee is under 18 years, the application must include the signed consent of a parent of the apprentice or trainee.
- (4) However, subsection (3) does not apply if it would be inappropriate in all the circumstances for a parent to give signed consent.

32B Chief executive may request further information

- (1) Within 21 days after receiving the application, the chief executive may give the applicant a written notice asking for further information the chief executive reasonably requires to decide the application.
- (2) The notice must state a reasonable period, of at least 14 days after the day the notice is given, for the applicant to comply with the notice.
- (3) The chief executive must consider any information given by the applicant within the period stated in the notice.

- (4) The applicant is taken to have withdrawn the application if the applicant does not comply with the notice.

32C Show cause notice before suspension of registered training contract

- (1) The chief executive must give each party to the registered training contract a notice (a show cause notice) stating the following—
- (a) that an application has been made under section 32A;
 - (b) the reasons stated in the application for the proposed suspension;
 - (c) if the chief executive proposes to suspend the contract—
 - (i) the period of the proposed suspension; and
 - (ii) the day the proposed suspension is to take effect;
 - (d) if the chief executive proposes not to suspend the contract—the reasons for the decision;
 - (e) that the party may, within 14 days after the show cause notice is given, give the chief executive a written response to the proposed suspension.
- (2) Also, if the apprentice or trainee is under 18 years, the chief executive must give the show cause notice to the parent of the apprentice or trainee.
- (3) However, subsection (1) does not apply if the chief executive reasonably considers it is not practicable to give a show cause notice to the party.

- (4) Also, subsection (2) does not apply if it would be inappropriate in all the circumstances for the chief executive to give the show cause notice to the parent of the apprentice or trainee.

32D Decision about suspension

- (1) After having regard to the reasons stated in the application and, if a show cause notice was given, any written responses to the notice made under section 32C(1)(e), the chief executive must decide—
 - (a) if satisfied that a party can not perform the party's obligations under the training contract—to suspend the contract; or
 - (b) otherwise—not to suspend the contract.
- (2) The chief executive must give each party an information notice about the decision.
- (3) If the chief executive decides to suspend the training contract the information notice must state—
 - (a) the period of the suspension; and
 - (b) the day the suspension takes effect.

8 Insertion of new ch 2, pt 2, div 5A

Chapter 2, part 2—

insert—

Division 5A Application for temporary suspension by employer and stand down of employment

32E Application for temporary suspension of registered training contract

- (1) This section applies if an employer of an apprentice or trainee temporarily can not provide the training stated in the training plan for the apprentice or trainee.
- (2) The employer may apply to the chief executive for approval to temporarily suspend the registered training contract for a period of no more than 30 days.
- (3) The application must be in the approved form and state—
 - (a) the reasons for the proposed temporary suspension; and
 - (b) the period of the proposed temporary suspension.
- (4) The employer must give a copy of the application to the employer's apprentice or trainee inviting the apprentice or trainee to make a submission to the chief executive, within 5 days, in relation to the proposed temporary suspension.

32F Decision about temporary suspension

- (1) Within 7 days after receiving the application, the chief executive must decide the application.
- (2) After having regard to the reasons stated in the application and any submissions made under section 32E(4), the chief executive must decide—
 - (a) if satisfied the employer can not provide the training to the apprentice or trainee under the training contract—to approve the application; or
 - (b) otherwise—not to approve the application.
- (3) The chief executive must give each party an information notice about the decision.

- (4) If the chief executive approves the application, the information notice must state the following—
 - (a) the maximum period, of not more than 30 days, over which the training contract may be suspended;
 - (b) the time during the maximum period, or a part of the period, the employer may stand down the apprentice or trainee;
 - (c) the day the period starts.
- (5) If the training contract is temporarily suspended, the employer may stand down the apprentice or trainee unless the employer and the apprentice or trainee otherwise agree.
- (6) The employer may stand down the apprentice or trainee without pay under this section only in accordance with the information notice from the chief executive.

9 Amendment of ch 2, pt 2, div 6, sdiv 1, hdg

Chapter 2, part 2, division 6, subdivision 1, heading, before 'parties'—

insert—

all

10 Insertion of new ch 2, pt 2, div 6, sdiv 1A

Chapter 2, part 2, division 6—

insert—

Subdivision 1A Cancellation on application by one party

35A Application to cancel registered training contract by one party

- (1) A party to a registered training contract may apply to the chief executive to cancel the contract if the party believes—
 - (a) the party can not successfully complete the party's obligations under the contract; or
 - (b) the other party can not successfully complete the other party's obligations under the contract.
- (2) The application must be in writing and—
 - (a) must state the following—
 - (i) the reasons for the proposed cancellation;
 - (ii) the day the proposed cancellation is to take effect, being not less than 7 days after the application is given to the chief executive; and
 - (b) may include material in support of the application.

35B Chief executive may request further information

- (1) Within 21 days after receiving the application, the chief executive may give an applicant a written notice asking for further information the chief executive reasonably requires to decide the application.
- (2) The notice must state a reasonable period of at least 14 days after the day the notice is given for the applicant to comply with the notice.
- (3) The chief executive must consider any information given by the applicant within the period stated in the notice.

[s 10]

- (4) The applicant is taken to have withdrawn the application if the applicant does not comply with the notice.

35C Show cause notice before deciding to cancel

- (1) The chief executive must give each party to the registered training contract a notice (a show cause notice) stating the following—
 - (a) that an application has been made under section 35A;
 - (b) the reasons, as stated in the application, for the proposed cancellation;
 - (c) if the chief executive proposes to cancel the contract—
 - (i) the reasons for the decision; and
 - (ii) the day the cancellation takes effect;
 - (d) if the chief executive proposes not to cancel the contract—the reasons for the decision;
 - (e) that the party may, within 14 days after the notice is given, give the chief executive a written response to the proposed cancellation.
- (2) Also, if the apprentice or trainee is under 18 years, the chief executive must give the show cause notice to the parent of the apprentice or trainee.
- (3) However, subsection (2) does not apply if it would be inappropriate in all the circumstances for the chief executive to give the show cause notice to the parent of the apprentice or trainee.

35D Decision about cancellation

- (1) After having regard to the reasons stated in the application and any written responses made under section 35C(1)(e), the chief executive must decide—

- (a) if satisfied that a party to the training contract can not successfully complete the party's obligations under the contract—to cancel the contract; or
 - (b) otherwise—not to cancel the contract.
- (2) The chief executive must give each party an information notice about the decision.
 - (3) If the chief executive decides to cancel the training contract the information notice must state the day the cancellation takes effect.

35E Cancellation in response to application

If a registered training contract is cancelled under section 35D, the apprenticeship or traineeship of the person who was the apprentice or trainee ends on the day the contract is cancelled.

11 Amendment of s 36 (Grounds for cancellation of registered training contract by chief executive)

- (1) Section 36(i)—

omit, insert—

- (i) the apprentice or trainee is no longer employed by the employer and it is at least 21 days since the employment ceased;

- (2) Section 36—

insert—

- (2) The chief executive must not cancel a registered training contract under subsection (1)(i) if—
 - (a) the chief executive has received notice of a contested event under section 58A; and

[s 12]

(b) the contested event has not been finalised.

12 Amendment of s 38 (Decision about cancellation after show cause notice)

Section 38(1)(b), 'section 36'—

omit, insert—

section 36(1)

13 Insertion of new ch 2, pt 2, div 6A

Chapter 2, part 2—

insert—

Division 6A Re-registration of cancelled contract in particular circumstances

40A Definitions for division

In this division—

cancelled contract means a registered training contract that was cancelled under division 6.

reinstatement decision means a decision of the industrial relations commission or fair work commission to reinstate the employment of the apprentice or trainee who was a party to a cancelled contract.

relevant entity means—

- (a) each person that was a party to a cancelled contract; and
- (b) the supervising registered training organisation for the apprentice or trainee who was a party to the cancelled contract.

40B Application of division

This division applies if the industrial relations commission or fair work commission makes a reinstatement decision.

40C Obligation to notify chief executive of relevant decision

Each person that was a party to a cancelled contract must, as soon as possible after becoming aware of the reinstatement decision, notify the chief executive of the decision.

40D Notice of re-registration of training contract after relevant decision

The chief executive must, as soon as practicable after receiving a notice under section 40C—

- (a) re-register the training contract; and
- (b) provide each relevant entity with a written notice stating the following—
 - (i) that the chief executive has re-registered the cancelled contract as a registered training contract;
 - (ii) that the nominal term of the re-registered training contract is extended by the period the contract was cancelled before being re-registered under paragraph (a);
 - (iii) the date the nominal term ends taking into account the period of extension under subparagraph (ii);
 - (iv) that the training plan for the apprentice or trainee under the cancelled contract continues in force unless the parties enter into a new training plan.

[s 14]

14 Insertion of new s 50A

After section 50—

insert—

50A Application for completion certificate

- (1) This section applies if a supervising registered training organisation has stopped operating as a registered training organisation before a completion agreement is signed by the parties to a registered training contract.
- (2) The parties may apply to the chief executive for the issue of a completion certificate.
- (3) The application must be in the approved form and include—
 - (a) evidence that the apprentice or trainee has completed all training and assessment required under the training plan for the apprentice or trainee; and
 - (b) if the apprentice or trainee is under 18 years—the signed consent of a parent of the apprentice or trainee.
- (4) However, subsection (3)(b) does not apply if it would be inappropriate in all the circumstances for a parent to give signed consent.
- (5) The chief executive may issue the completion certificate only if satisfied the apprentice or trainee has completed the apprenticeship or traineeship in accordance with this Act.

15 Amendment of s 58 (Employer to report notifiable events)

Section 58(1)—

insert—

- (e) the apprentice or trainee has—

- (i) made an application for unfair dismissal under the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cwlth), section 394; or
- (ii) made an application for reinstatement under the Industrial Relations Act 2016, section 317; or
- (iii) commenced another proceeding contesting the cessation of employment.

16 Insertion of new section 58A

After section 58—

insert—

58A Apprentice or trainee must report contested event

- (1) This section applies if the employment of an apprentice or trainee has ceased and any of the following events (each a contested event) happens—
 - (a) the apprentice or trainee makes an application for unfair dismissal under the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cwlth), section 394;
 - (b) the apprentice or trainee makes an application for reinstatement under the Industrial Relations Act 2016, section 317;
 - (c) the apprentice or trainee commences another proceeding contesting the cessation of employment.
- (2) The apprentice or trainee must give the chief executive notice of the contested event within 21 days after the employment of the apprentice or trainee ceased.

[s 17]

17 Insertion of new s 66A

After section 66—

insert—

66A Supervising registered training organisation must complete employer resource assessment

- (1) This section applies to the supervising registered training organisation for an apprentice or trainee in relation to the apprentice's or trainee's training plan.
- (2) The organisation must—
 - (a) complete an employer resource assessment in the approved form for the apprentice's or trainee's training plan; and
 - (b) regularly review and, if necessary, revise the employer resource assessment during the period of the training plan; and on application by one party

82A Application by one party to change a training plan

- (1) If a party to a training plan considers an apprentice or trainee has not made sufficient progress to achieve the qualification or statement of attainment under the training plan, the party may apply to the chief executive to change the mode of delivery of the training plan.
- (2) The application must be in the approved form and state the following—
 - (a) the proposed change to the mode of delivery of the training plan;

[s 22]

- (b) the reasons for the proposed change.
- (3) If the apprentice or trainee makes the application and is under 18 years, the application must include the signed consent of a parent of the apprentice or trainee.
- (4) However, subsection (3) does not apply if it would be inappropriate in all the circumstances for a parent to give signed consent.

82B Chief executive may request further information

- (1) Within 21 days after receiving the application, the chief executive may give the applicant a written notice asking for further information the chief executive reasonably requires to decide the application.
- (2) The notice must state a reasonable period of at least 14 days after the day the notice is given for the applicant to comply with the notice.
- (3) The chief executive must consider any information given by the applicant within the period stated in the notice.
- (4) The applicant is taken to have withdrawn the application if the applicant does not comply with the notice.

82C Show cause notice before changing a training plan

If the chief executive proposes to change the mode of delivery of the training plan the chief executive must give each party to the registered training contract a notice (a show cause notice) stating the following—

- (a) that an application has been made under section 82A;

- (b) the reasons, as stated in the application, for the proposed change;
- (c) the reasons the chief executive proposes to change the training plan;
- (d) the proposed change to the mode of delivery of the training plan;
- (e) the day the proposed change is to take effect;
- (f) that the party may, within 14 days after the notice is given, give the chief executive a written response to the proposed change.

82D Decision about changing a training plan

- (1) After having regard to the reasons stated in the application and, if a show cause notice was given under section 82C, any written responses made under section 82C(f), the chief executive must decide—
 - (a) if satisfied the change to the mode of delivery of the training plan is necessary to assist the apprentice or trainee make the required progress to achieve the qualification or statement of attainment under the training plan—to change the mode of delivery of the training plan; or
 - (b) otherwise—not to change the mode of delivery of the training plan.
- (2) The chief executive must give each party a written notice about the decision.
- (3) If the chief executive decides to change the mode of delivery of the training plan, the written notice must state—
 - (a) the change; and

[s 22]

- (b) the date the change takes effect, being not less than 14 days after the day the notice is given to the parties.

Subdivision 5 Changing a training plan— chief executive

82E Chief executive may change training plan without application by the parties

The chief executive may decide to change the mode of delivery of the training plan if the chief executive is satisfied the change is necessary to assist an apprentice or trainee to achieve the qualification or statement of attainment under the apprentice's or trainee's training plan.

82F Show cause notice before changing a training plan

If the chief executive proposes to change the mode of delivery of the training plan, the chief executive must give each party to the registered training contract a notice (a show cause notice) stating the following—

- (a) that the chief executive proposes to change the training plan;
- (b) the reasons the chief executive proposes to change the training plan;
- (c) the proposed change to the mode of delivery of the training plan;
- (d) the day the proposed change is to take effect;
- (e) that the party may, within 14 days after the notice is given, give the chief executive a written response to the proposed change.

82G Decision about changing a training plan

- (1) After having regard to any written responses made under section 82F(e), the chief executive must decide—
 - (a) if satisfied the change to the mode of delivery of the training plan is necessary to assist the apprentice or trainee make the required progress to achieve the qualification or statement of attainment under the training plan—to change the mode of delivery of the training plan; or
 - (b) otherwise—not to change the mode of delivery of the training plan.
- (2) The chief executive must give each party a written notice about the decision.
- (3) If the chief executive decides to change the mode of delivery of the training plan, the written notice must state—
 - (a) the change; and
 - (b) the date the change takes effect, being not less than 14 days after the day the notice is given to the parties.

Subdivision 6 Supervising registered training organisation's obligations in relation to a change

omit, insert—

220 Insurer's responsibility for rehabilitation and return to work

- (1) An insurer must take all reasonable steps to secure the rehabilitation and early return to suitable duties of—
 - (a) workers who have an entitlement to compensation; and
 - (b) workers who are participating in an accredited rehabilitation and return to work program of the insurer.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), an insurer—
 - (a) may refer a worker who is receiving compensation for an injury to an accredited rehabilitation and return to work program of the insurer; and
 - (b) must refer a worker who is receiving compensation for an injury, and has asked the insurer to be referred to a rehabilitation and return to work program, to an accredited rehabilitation and return to work program of the insurer; and
 - (c) must refer a worker who has stopped receiving compensation for an injury under section 144A, 168 or 190(2), and has not returned to work because of the injury, to an accredited rehabilitation and return to work program of the insurer.

- (3) However—
- (a) subsection (2)(b) and (c) does not apply if the insurer is satisfied the program is not able to further assist the worker with rehabilitation for the injury; and
 - (b) subsection (2)(c) does not apply if the worker is already participating in an accredited rehabilitation and return to work program of the insurer.
- (4) A worker who is referred under subsection (2) to an accredited rehabilitation and return to work program of an insurer is entitled to participate in the program until the first of the following happens—
- (a) the insurer is satisfied the worker is unwilling or unable to participate in the program;
 - (b) the insurer is satisfied the program is not able to further assist the worker with rehabilitation for the injury;
 - (c) the worker receives a payment of damages for the injury;
 - (d) the worker receives a redemption payment for the injury;
 - (e) the worker receives compensation for the injury for 5 years.
- (5) An insurer must take all reasonable steps to coordinate the development and maintenance of rehabilitation and return to work plans for workers who have sustained an injury.
- (6) If a worker is aggrieved by either of the following decisions of an insurer, the worker may have the decision reviewed under chapter 13—

- (a) a decision under subsection (3) to refuse the worker's entitlement under subsection (2)(b) or (c) to be referred to an accredited rehabilitation and return to work program of the insurer;
 - (b) a decision under subsection (4) that the worker is no longer entitled to participate in an accredited rehabilitation and return to work program of the insurer.
- (7) In this section—
- rehabilitation and return to work plan*, for a worker who has sustained an injury, means a written plan—
- (a) outlining the rehabilitation objectives for the worker and the steps required to achieve the objectives; and
 - (b) developed in consultation with the worker, the worker's employer and registered persons treating the worker.

64 Replacement of s 228 (Employer's obligation to assist or provide rehabilitation)

Section 228—

omit, insert—

228 Employer's obligation to assist or provide rehabilitation

- (1) The employer of a worker who has sustained an injury must take all reasonable steps to assist or provide the worker with rehabilitation during the prescribed period for the worker.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

- (2) The rehabilitation must be of a suitable standard as prescribed by regulation.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (1) or (2), the employer must cooperate with the insurer to enable the insurer to meet its obligations under section 220.
- (4) If an employer considers it is not practicable to provide the worker with suitable duties programs, as mentioned in section 40(2)(a)(i), the employer must give the insurer written evidence that it is not practicable.
- (5) In this section—
prescribed period, for a worker who has sustained an injury, means the period that—
 - (a) starts on the day the worker is injured; and
 - (b) ends on the day the insurer's responsibility for the worker's rehabilitation ends under section 220.

65 Insertion of new ch 4, pt 5A

Chapter 4—

Part 5A Support for workers with psychiatric or psychological injuries

232AA Application of part

- (1) This part applies if a worker makes an application for compensation under section 132 for a psychiatric or psychological injury arising out of, or in the course of, employment.
- (2) However, this part does not apply if the worker has made an earlier application for compensation under section 132 for a psychiatric or psychological injury and the event that resulted in the injury the subject of the earlier application is the same, or substantially the same, as the event that resulted in the injury mentioned in subsection (1).

232AB Insurer's responsibility for providing support to worker

- (1) The insurer must take all reasonable steps to provide reasonable services to support the worker in relation to the psychiatric or psychological injury during the prescribed period for the worker.

Examples of reasonable services to support a worker—

mediation services, counselling services

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), if the services include medical treatment for the worker's injury during the prescribed period for the worker, the insurer must pay—
 - (a) for medical treatment by a registered person—the cost the insurer accepts as reasonable, having regard to the relevant table of costs; and

- (b) for nursing, medicines, or medical or surgical supplies—the cost the insurer accepts as reasonable.
- (3) However, the insurer is not required to pay—
 - (a) the costs of nursing, medicines, or medical or surgical supplies that the worker receives as an in-patient at a hospital; or
 - (b) the costs of hospitalisation of the worker.
- (4) If the worker's application for compensation is allowed, a payment under this section by the insurer is taken to be a payment of compensation.
- (5) In this section—

prescribed period, for a worker, means the period that—

 - (a) starts on the day the worker makes an application for compensation under section 132 for a psychiatric or psychological injury arising out of, or in the course of, employment; and
 - (b) ends on the day the insurer decides to allow or reject the application for compensation mentioned in paragraph (a).

Part 14 Expressions of regret and apologies

Division 1 Expressions of regret

320A Application of division

This division applies in relation to liability for damages.

320B Purpose of division

The purpose of this division is to allow an individual to express regret about an incident that may give rise to an action for damages without being concerned that the expression of regret may be construed or used as an admission of liability on a claim or in a proceeding based on a claim arising out of the incident.

320C Meaning of expression of regret

An expression of regret made by an individual in relation to an incident alleged to give rise to an action for damages is any oral or written statement expressing regret for the incident to the extent that it does not contain an admission of liability on the part of the individual or someone else.

320D Expressions of regret are inadmissible

An expression of regret made by an individual in relation to an incident alleged to give rise to an action for damages at any time before a civil proceeding in relation to the incident is started in a court is not admissible in the proceeding.

Division 2 Apologies

320E Application of division

This division applies in relation to liability for damages.

320F Purpose of division

The purpose of this division is to allow a person to make an apology about a matter without the apology being construed or used as an admission of liability for damages in relation to the matter.

320G Meaning of apology

An apology is an expression of sympathy or regret, or of a general sense of benevolence or compassion, in connection with any matter, whether or not it admits or implies an admission of fault in relation to the matter.

320H Effect of apology on liability

(1) An apology made by or on behalf of a person in relation to any matter alleged to have been caused by the person—

[s 70]

- (a) does not constitute an express or implied admission of fault or liability for damages by the person in relation to the matter; and
 - (b) is not relevant to the determination of fault or liability for damages in relation to the matter.
- (2) Evidence of an apology made by a person is not admissible in any civil proceeding as evidence of the fault or liability for damages of the person in relation to the matter.

70 Amendment of s 383 (General statement of WorkCover's functions)

(1) Section 383(1)—

insert—

(ab) to fund and provide programs and incentives to encourage improved health and safety performance by employers;

Section 538(1)—

insert—

- (aa) a decision not to provide a service under section 232AB;

[s 75]

75 Amendment of s 540 (Application of pt 2)

(1) Section 540(1)(a)—

insert—

(xiiia) to refuse a worker's entitlement to be referred to an accredited rehabilitation and return to work program of WorkCover under section 220(3); or

(xiiab) that a worker is no longer entitled to participate in an accredited rehabilitation and return to work program of WorkCover under section 220(4); or

(2) Section 540(1)(b)—

insert—

(viiia) to refuse a worker's entitlement to be referred to an accredited rehabilitation and return to work program of the self-insurer under section 220(3); or

(viiab) that a worker is no longer entitled to participate in an accredited rehabilitation and return to work program of the self-insurer under section 220(4); or

76 Amendment of s 584 (Regulation-making power)

Section 584—

insert—

(3) A regulation may prescribe an amount, including, for example, an amount of a fee, levy or damages, as a multiple of QOTE.

77 Insertion of new ch 35

After section 729—

730 Definitions for chapter

In this chapter—

former, for a provision, means the provision as in force before the commencement.

new, for a provision, means the provision as in force from the commencement.

731 Requirement for employment to be significant contributing factor to psychiatric or psychological disorder

- (1) New section 32 applies in relation to a psychiatric or psychological disorder only if the injury to which the disorder relates was sustained by a worker after the commencement.
- (2) Former section 32 continues to apply in relation to a psychiatric or psychological disorder if the injury to which the disorder relates was sustained by a worker before the commencement.

732 Requirement for certification of terminal condition

- (1) New section 39A applies in relation to a terminal condition only if the latent onset injury to which the condition relates was sustained by a worker on or after 31 January 2015.

[s 77]

- (2) Former section 39A continues to apply in relation to a terminal condition if the latent onset injury to which the condition relates was sustained by a worker before 31 January 2015.

733 Expression of percentage difference in QOTE for financial year rounded to nearest second decimal place

- (1) This section applies if, before the commencement, the Regulator notified under former section 107(2)(b) the percentage difference in QOTE for a financial year compared to QOTE for the previous financial year.
- (2) The notification of the percentage difference is, and is taken to have always been, as valid as it would have been if the percentage difference had been notified under new section 107(3).
- (3) Anything done, or omitted to be done, under a notice under former section 107(2) is, and is taken to have always been, as valid as it would have been if the percentage difference in the notice had been notified under new section 107(3).

734 Payment of compensation by employer who is self-insurer

The prohibition under new section 109(4) against an employer who is a self-insurer paying a worker an amount, either in compensation or instead of compensation, that is payable under the Act by the employer as a self-insurer for an injury sustained by the worker applies only if the worker's injury was sustained after the commencement.

735 Discretion of insurer to waive time limit for applying for compensation

The discretion of an insurer to waive the time limit under new section 131 for lodging an application for compensation applies only if the application was made after the commencement.

736 Report of injury by employer who is self-insurer

The obligation under new section 133 of an employer who is a self-insurer and whose worker sustains an injury to complete a report in the approved form and give the report to the insurer applies only if the worker's injury was sustained after the commencement.

737 Obligation of employer who is self-insurer to report payment to insurer

The obligation under new section 133A of an employer who is a self-insurer and whose worker sustains an injury to give a written notice to the insurer if the employer pays the worker an amount, either in compensation or instead of compensation, that is payable by the employer under the Act for an injury sustained by the worker, applies only if the worker's injury was sustained after the commencement.

738 Insurer's obligation to refer worker who has stopped receiving compensation to return to work program

The obligation of an insurer under new section 220(2)(c) to refer a worker, who has stopped receiving compensation for an injury under section 144A, 168 or 190(2), to an accredited rehabilitation and return to work program of the insurer applies only if the worker stopped receiving the compensation after the commencement.

739 Employer's obligation to give insurer details of rehabilitation and return to work coordinator appointed before commencement

- (1) This section applies if an employer appointed a rehabilitation and return to work coordinator before the commencement.
- (2) The employer must give the insurer the prescribed details of the coordinator, as defined in new section 226(8), within 12 months after the commencement.
- (3) New section 226(4) applies to the employer as if the coordinator were appointed on the commencement.

740 Insurer's obligation to provide support for worker with psychiatric or psychological injury

The obligation of an insurer under new chapter 4, part 5A to provide support to a worker who has made an application for compensation for a psychiatric or psychological injury applies only if the worker's injury was sustained after the commencement.

741 Expressions of regret and apologies made before commencement

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a person gives a notice of a claim to an insurer after the commencement; and

- (b) an expression of regret or apology was made in relation to the claim before the commencement.
- (2) Chapter 5, part 14 applies in relation to the expression of regret or apology.
