5E Principles for participation of children

- (1) This section applies if a person—
 - (a) exercises, or will exercise, a power under this Act that affects, or may affect, a child; or
 - (b) makes, or will make, a decision under this Act that affects, or may affect, a child.
- (2) Unless a provision of this Act states otherwise, the person must ensure the following in relation to the exercise of the power or the making of the decision—

- (a) the child is given meaningful and ongoing opportunities to participate;
 - (b) the child is allowed to decide whether or not the child will participate;
 - (c) the child is given information that is reasonably necessary to allow the child to participate;
 - (d) the child is advised about what help is available to the child;
 - (e) the person understands and considers, or makes a genuine attempt to understand and consider, any views expressed by the child;
 - (f) the child is allowed to express views that are different to views previously expressed by the child;
 - (g) communication with the child is carried out in a way that is appropriate for the child;
 - (h) a record of views expressed by the child is made that, if appropriate, uses the child's words.
- (3) If the child decides to participate in the exercise of the power or the making of the decision, the person must ensure that—
- (a) the child is allowed to decide how the child will participate; and

Examples of how a child may decide to participate—

- communicating verbally or non-verbally
- communicating directly with a particular person
- communicating indirectly through a trusted person, including, for example, a member of the child's family or family group, the child's carer or the public guardian
- communicating indirectly through an independent person, including, for example,

[s 12]

- the child's legal representative or health practitioner
 - communicating indirectly through a written statement or an audio or video recording
 - communicating indirectly through an expert in a report prepared by the expert
 - participating separately from particular persons
- (b) the person listens to and engages with, or makes a genuine attempt to listen to and engage with, the child; and
- (c) the child is given help to participate if the child requires it.
- (4) If the child decides not to participate, or is otherwise unable to participate, in the exercise of the power or the making of the decision, the person must ensure—
- (a) the person obtains, or makes a genuine attempt to obtain, the views of the child in another way that is appropriate for the child; and
- Example of a way to obtain a child's views that may be appropriate—*
- a report prepared by a psychologist for the child
- (b) the child's decision, or inability, does not operate to the detriment of the child in relation to the exercise of the power or the making of the decision.
- (5) This section does not apply to a court or the tribunal.

55 Insertion of new ss 142E and 142F

After section 142D—

insert—

142E Obtaining interstate criminal history information about particular persons

(1) The chief executive may ask an interstate commissioner for a written statement briefly describing the circumstances of—

(a) each interstate conviction of a relevant person; or

(b) each interstate charge made against a relevant person.

(2) The chief executive and the interstate commissioner may enter into a written arrangement by which information mentioned in subsection (1) is transferred.

[s 55]

- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), the arrangement—
- (a) may provide for the electronic transfer of information, including, for example, on a daily basis; and
 - (b) if the arrangement provides for the electronic transfer of information—must provide for the following—
 - (i) limitations under this Act on who may access the information;
 - (ii) limitations under this Act on the purposes for which the information may be used.

Note—

See also section 142F(2).

- (4) In this section—

interstate charge, made against a person, means a charge against the person for an offence alleged to have been committed by the person against a law of another State or the Commonwealth.

interstate commissioner means the commissioner of a police force or service of another State or the Commonwealth.

interstate rehabilitation law means a law applying, or that applied, in another State or the Commonwealth, that provides or provided for the same matter as the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986.

interstate spent conviction, of a person, means an interstate conviction of the person that the person is not required to disclose under an interstate rehabilitation law because—

- (a) a rehabilitation period prescribed for the conviction under the interstate rehabilitation law has expired; and
- (b) the conviction has not been revived under the interstate rehabilitation law.

relevant person means any of the following persons—

- (a) an applicant for a certificate of approval who has, or to whom the chief executive proposes to issue, a provisional certificate;
- (b) an adult member of the household of a person mentioned in paragraph (a).

142F Use of expanded interstate criminal history

- (1) This section applies if, under section 142E, the chief executive obtains the expanded interstate criminal history of a relevant person.
- (2) Despite any other provision of this Act, the chief executive—
 - (a) may use the expanded interstate criminal history only to the extent necessary to assess whether the relevant person poses a risk to a child's safety; and
 - (b) must not use the expanded interstate criminal history when considering whether the relevant person is able and willing to protect a child from harm.
- (3) In this section—

expanded interstate criminal history, of a person, means information about the circumstances of—

[s 56]

- (a) every interstate spent conviction of the person within the meaning of section 142E; or
 - (b) every interstate charge made against the person within the meaning of section 142E.
- relevant person* see section 142E(4).

Chapter 4—

insert—

Part 4

Support and training for approved carers

148E Chief executive's responsibility to provide support and training

- (1) This section applies in relation to an approved carer who is caring for a child under this Act.
- (2) The chief executive must provide the approved carer with, or ensure the approved carer has access to, the following—
 - (a) support to help the carer care for the child, including, for example—
 - (i) information about financial assistance for approved carers; and
 - (ii) information and advice about providing care for children; and
 - (iii) respite care; and
 - (iv) access to support persons;
 - (b) training programs that maintain or develop the carer's ability to care for children.
- (3) The chief executive need only comply with subsection (2) to the extent the chief executive considers that—
 - (a) it is practicable to do so; and
 - (b) the support or training is appropriate in the circumstances.

Part 5 Register of applicants, authority holders and former authority holders

148F Register of applicants, authority holders and former authority holders

- (1) The chief executive must keep a register of the following persons—

[s 59]

- (a) applicants for authorities;
 - (b) holders of authorities;
 - (c) former holders of authorities.
- (2) The register must contain, for each person mentioned in subsection (1), the particulars prescribed by regulation that are available to the chief executive.

Note—

See chapter 6, part 6, division 2, subdivision 2 about the confidentiality of information recorded in the register.

- (3) The register may be kept in the way the chief executive considers appropriate, including, for example, in an electronic form.

59 Amendment of s 159R (Interaction with other laws)

Section 159R(3)—

omit, insert—

- (3) Nothing in this chapter requires a person or entity to disclose information that is subject to privilege.

Example—

A person may decide to withhold information, that would otherwise have to be disclosed under this chapter, because the information is subject to legal professional privilege.

- (4) If information is subject to privilege, the privilege is not waived, or otherwise affected, merely because the information may be, or is, disclosed under this chapter.
- (5) In this section—
- privilege means any privilege a person may claim under an Act or law, including, for example, legal professional privilege.

60 Amendment of s 166 (Offence to refuse contact with child in custody or guardianship)

- (1) Section 166(1)—
relocate and renumber as section 166(4).
- (2) Section 166(2), from ‘premises for’—
omit, insert—
a place for the purpose of having contact with a child at the place to ensure the child’s protection.
- (3) Section 166(3), ‘for subsection (3)’— omit.
- (4) Section 166(2) to (4), as amended by this Act—renumber as section 166(1) to (3).

61 Replacement of s 186 (Confidentiality of notifiers of harm or risk of harm)

Section 186—
omit, insert—

Subdivision 1 Confidentiality of notifiers

186 Application of subdivision

This subdivision applies if a person (the notifier) notifies the chief executive, an authorised officer, a police officer, a doctor or a nurse that the notifier suspects—

- (a) a child has been, is being or is likely to be, harmed; or
- (b) an unborn child may be at risk of harm after he or she is born.

[s 61]

186A Identity of notifier not to be disclosed

- (1) The person who receives the notification, or a person who becomes aware of the identity of the notifier, must not disclose the identity of the notifier, or information from which the identity of the notifier could be deduced, to another person.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the disclosure is made—
- (a) in the course of performing functions under this Act to another person performing functions under—
 - (i) this Act; or
 - (ii) a child welfare law, or interstate law, of another State; or
 - (b) in the course of performing functions under a child welfare law, or interstate law, of another State to another person performing functions under—
 - (i) this Act; or
 - (ii) a child welfare law, or interstate law, of another State; or
 - (c) under the Child Protection (International Measures) Act 2003, part 6; or
 - (d) to the ombudsman conducting an investigation under the Ombudsman Act 2001; or
 - (e) for the performance by the chief executive (adoptions) of the chief executive's functions under the Adoption Act 2009; or
 - (f) to the litigation director for the purposes of the director performing a function under the Director of Child Protection Litigation Act 2016; or

- (g) if the person is an authorised person—under section 186B; or
- (h) by way of evidence given in a legal proceeding under section 186C.

186B Disclosure by authorised person

- (1) An authorised person may disclose the identity of the notifier, or information from which the identity of the notifier could be deduced, to a senior police officer if—
 - (a) the officer gives the authorised person a written request for the identity or information that states the identity or information is required for the prevention, detection, investigation, prosecution or punishment of a criminal offence against a child (an enforcement action); and
 - (b) the authorised person is reasonably satisfied the disclosure is necessary to ensure the safety, wellbeing or best interests of the child mentioned in paragraph (a) or another child; and
 - (c) the authorised person complies with subsection (2).
- (2) The authorised person must—
 - (a) when disclosing information under subsection (1), identify the information as information being disclosed in response to the request mentioned in subsection (1)(a); and
 - (b) as soon as practicable after disclosing information under subsection (1), inform the notifier of the disclosure, unless—
 - (i) it is not possible or practicable to do so; or

[s 61]

Example—

The authorised person does not have, and is not able to obtain, the notifier's contact details.

- (ii) the authorised person considers that to do so will, or may, prejudice an enforcement action.

(3) In this section—

authorised person means—

- (a) the chief executive; or
- (b) an officer or employee of the department authorised, by the chief executive, to disclose information under this section.

senior police officer means a police officer of at least the rank of sergeant.

186C Disclosure in proceeding

(1) Subject to subsection (2)—

- (a) evidence of the identity of the notifier or from which the identity of the notifier could be deduced must not be given in a proceeding before a court or tribunal without leave of the court or tribunal; and
- (b) unless leave is granted, a party or witness in the proceeding—
 - (i) must not be asked, and, if asked, can not be required to answer, any question that can not be answered without disclosing the identity of, or leading to the identification of, the notifier; and
 - (ii) must not be asked to produce, and, if asked, can not be required to produce, any document that identifies, or may lead to the identification of, the notifier.

- (2) The court or tribunal must not grant leave unless—
 - (a) it is satisfied—
 - (i) the evidence is of critical importance in the proceeding; and
 - (ii) there is compelling reason in the public interest for disclosure; or
 - (b) the notifier agrees to the evidence being given in the proceeding.
- (3) In deciding whether to grant leave, the court or tribunal must take into account—
 - (a) the possible effects of disclosure on the safety or wellbeing of the notifier and the notifier's family; and
 - (b) the public interest in maintaining confidentiality of notifiers.
- (4) As far as practicable, an application for leave must be heard in a way that protects the identity of the notifier pending a decision on the application.

Subdivision 2 Other confidentiality provisions

62 Amendment of s 187 (Confidentiality of information obtained by persons involved in administration of Act)

Section 187(3)—

insert—

- (e) if the person to whom the information relates—
 - (i) is, or becomes, an adult; and
 - (ii) consents in writing to the use, disclosure or giving of access.

[s 63]

63 Amendment of s 188D (Chief executive may give information about deceased child)

(1) Section 188D, heading and subsections (1) and (2)—

omit, insert—

188D Chief executive may give information about particular deceased persons

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) in the course of performing functions under, or in relation to the administration of, this Act, the chief executive acquires information about a person; and
- (b) at the time the chief executive acquires the information, the person is a child; and
- (c) after the chief executive acquires the information, the person dies, whether or not the person is a child when the person dies.

(2) Subject to subdivision 1, the chief executive may disclose the information to a parent of the deceased person.

(2) Section 188D(4), after ‘the person’—

insert—

to whom the information is disclosed

65 Insertion of new ch 9, pt 13

Chapter 9—

insert—

Part 13 Transitional provisions for Child Protection Reform and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2022

281 Definitions for part

In this part—

former, for a provision of this Act, means the provision as in force from time to time before the commencement.

new, for a provision of this Act, means the provision as in force from the commencement.

282 Existing applications for extension of particular orders

- (1) This section applies in relation to an application mentioned in former section 99(1)(b) if, immediately before the commencement, the application had not been decided.
- (2) Former section 99 continues to apply in relation to the application as if the Child Protection Reform and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2022 had not commenced.

283 Existing notices of appeal

- (1) This section applies in relation to an appeal started under section 118 if, immediately before the commencement, the appeal had not been decided or otherwise finally dealt with.
- (2) Former chapter 3, part 4 continues to apply in relation to the appeal as if the Child Protection Reform and Other Legislation Amendment Act

[s 65]

2022 had not commenced.

284 Existing applications under ch 4, pt 2

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) an application was made under former chapter 4, part 2; and
 - (b) immediately before the commencement, the application had not been decided.
- (2) From the commencement—
 - (a) the following provisions apply in relation to the application—
 - (i) for a foster carer certificate or kinship carer certificate—new section 134(8);
 - (ii) new chapter 4, part 2, division 7; and
 - (b) the former provisions of this Act, other than former section 134(8) and former chapter 4, part 2, division 7, continue to apply in relation to the application as if the Child Protection Reform and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2022 had not commenced.

285 Existing kinship carer certificates

- (1) This section applies in relation to a kinship carer certificate in force immediately before the commencement.
- (2) From the commencement, former schedule 3, definition kin continues to apply in relation to the certificate as if the Child Protection Reform and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2022 had not commenced.
- (3) Subsections (4) to (6) apply if the holder of the kinship carer certificate makes an application, under section 133, for a foster carer certificate.

- (4) The kinship carer certificate is taken to continue in force—
 - (a) from the day that it would, apart from this section, have ended; and
 - (b) until the application is decided or withdrawn.
- (5) However, if the application is refused, the kinship carer certificate continues in force until notice for the decision is given to the holder under section 136.
- (6) Subsection (4) does not apply if the kinship carer certificate is earlier suspended or cancelled.

286 Application of ss 141B and 141D to persons performing risk-assessed roles

- (1) This section applies in relation to a person if—
 - (a) on the commencement, the person—
 - (i) is performing a risk-assessed role for a licensed care service; and
 - (ii) has a domestic violence history or a traffic history; and
 - (b) the person had not disclosed the domestic violence history, or the traffic history, under section 141D(2) before the commencement.
- (2) For sections 141B(2) and 141D(2), the person is taken to have acquired the domestic violence history, or the traffic history, on the commencement.

287 Reviews of decisions under s 86

- (1) This section applies in relation to a decision made by the chief executive, under section 86(4), before the commencement.

[s 66]

- (2) For a review of the decision under section 247, former schedule 2 continues to apply in relation to the decision as if the Child Protection Reform and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2022 had not commenced.

- (b) in the chief executive's possession in relation to the performance of the chief executive's screening functions.

345B Giving information to ACC

- (1) The chief executive may give information about a person to the ACC—

- (a) under an arrangement between the chief executive and the ACC for the purpose of the information being included in the working with children check national reference system; or
 - (b) if the chief executive reasonably believes the information is otherwise relevant to the functions of the ACC that relate to the working with children check national reference system.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1)(a), information is given to the ACC if the information is entered into, or uploaded to, the working with children check national reference system.

345C Giving information to interstate screening units

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) the chief executive is aware a person holds an interstate working with children authority issued by an interstate screening unit under a corresponding WWC law; or
 - (b) an interstate screening unit has asked the chief executive for information about a person in relation to deciding an application made by the person under a corresponding WWC law.
- (2) The chief executive may give information about the person to the interstate screening unit if the chief executive reasonably believes the information is relevant to the functions of the interstate screening unit under the corresponding WWC law.
- (3) The chief executive must not give to an interstate screening unit a section 93A transcript, or information contained in a section 93A transcript.

(1) Section 353, definition chapter 8 reviewable decision—

insert—

- (ca) a decision of the chief executive that the person's interstate working with children authority has been suspended under a corresponding WWC law if—
 - (i) because of the decision, the person's working with children authority was suspended under section 296; and
 - (ii) the person claims he or she is not the person whose interstate working with children authority has been suspended under a corresponding WWC law; and
 - (iii) the person has applied under section 300(1)(b) for the chief executive to decide whether to cancel the person's suspended working with children authority and that application has been refused; or
- (cb) a decision of the chief executive that the person is subject to an interstate interim bar if—
 - (i) because of the decision, the person's working with children authority was suspended under section 296; and

[s 128]

renumber as section 384(b)(iv) to (vi).

128 Insertion of new ss 598 to 601

Chapter 11, part 21, as inserted by this Act—

insert—

598 New regulated employment

- (1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement—
 - (a) a person was employed in employment, or was continuing in employment, mentioned in schedule 1, section 14; and
 - (b) the employment was not regulated employment mentioned in schedule 1, section 14 as in force immediately before the commencement; and
 - (c) the employee does not have a current working with children authority.
- (2) Sections 175, 176A, 176C and 176E do not apply in relation to the employment until—
 - (a) 3 months after the commencement; or
 - (b) if the person makes a working with children check application within the period mentioned in paragraph (a)—the application is decided or withdrawn.

599 New regulated businesses

- (1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement—
 - (a) a person was carrying on a business mentioned in schedule 1, section 24; and
