85A Disclosure to prevent serious risk of harm

- (1) This section applies if a committee forms a reasonable belief that a health professional, in the practice of the health professional's profession, poses a serious risk of harm to a person because of the health professional's health, conduct or performance.
- (2) The committee must disclose to the health professional's chief executive—
 - (a) the information that forms the basis of the reasonable belief; and
 - (b) the identity of the health professional.
- (3) Subsection (2)(b) applies despite section 83(2).
- (4) The chief executive must not disclose to another person information obtained under subsection (2), other than—
 - (a) if the chief executive is the chief executive of the department or a prescribed Service—

[s 10]

- (i) to the extent necessary to allow the chief executive to perform the chief executive's functions under this Act or the Public Sector Act 2022; or
 - (ii) for the purposes of making a notification about the health professional under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (Queensland), part 8, division 2; or
 - (b) if the chief executive is the chief executive of a private health facility—
 - (i) to the extent necessary to allow the chief executive to perform the chief executive's functions relating to the management of the facility; or
 - (ii) for the purposes of making a notification about the health professional under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (Queensland), part 8, division 2.
- (5) In this section—
- chief executive, of a health professional, means—
- (a) if the health professional is appointed as a health service employee or public service officer in the department—the chief executive of the department; or
 - (b) if the health professional is appointed as a health service employee in a prescribed Service—the health service chief executive of the prescribed Service; or
 - (c) if the health professional is employed in a private health facility—the licensee of the facility.

11 Amendment of s 112 (Giving of copy of RCA report—patient safety entity)

- (1) Section 157A, heading, after 'expert's report'—

insert—

and transcript

- (2) Section 157A(1)—

omit, insert—

- (1) This section applies to—

[s 17]

- (a) an expert's report received in evidence by the Mental Health Court on a reference; and
 - (b) a transcript of the proceeding of the Mental Health Court on the reference.
- (3) Section 157A(2), from 'The report' to 'Magistrates Court'—
omit, insert—

The report and transcript are admissible in a proceeding before a Magistrates Court for the offence in relation to the reference, or any other offence alleged to have been committed by the person,

17 Replacement of s 160 (Other use of expert's report)

Section 160—

insert—

160 Other use of expert's report

- (1) This section applies to an expert's report filed in the Mental Health Court Registry for a proceeding on a reference.
- (2) The report may be given to, and used by, a person only with the leave of the court.
- (3) The court may grant the leave subject to the conditions it considers appropriate.
- (4) Despite subsection (2), if the report has been received in evidence by the court on the reference, the report may be given to—
 - (a) if an authorised mental health service is responsible for the person the subject of the reference—the administrator of the service; or
 - (b) if the forensic disability service is responsible for the person the subject of the reference—the administrator of the service;
