To Whom it May Concern,

I am writing to you to implore you to make all puppy farms illegal. They are an intensive factory farm for dogs, only a money making business with absolutely no concern for any animal welfare whatsoever which makes it a very cruel existence for the poor dogs kept in these establishments.

You have the power to do this and I know that the majority of Australians want these farms to be eliminated. People can buy their puppies from reputable dog breeders who care and have compassion for their dogs. Intensive puppy farm breeding is cruel and unnecessary.

Yours faithfully,

Anna Franklin,
