

Re. Vegetation Management

Submission No. 199

RECEIVED

21 APR 2016

AEC

Rescue of conifers in Eungella.

Eighty year old bunya, hoop and radiata conifers are being irresponsibly logged by National Parks in Eungella. These icons of our forests are home to red tailed black cockatoos, regent and greater bower birds and accommodate platypus breeding grounds. A great diversity of animal and bird life inhabit this forest.

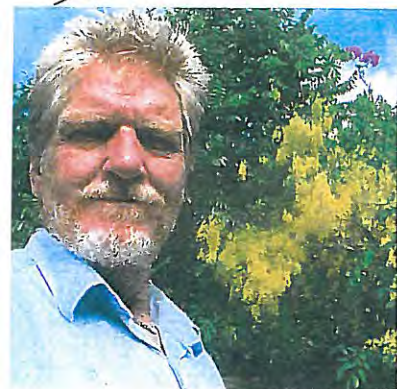

This forest on Bee Creek Road has great potential for future tourism therefore these magnificent trees need to be kept intact.

RAINFOREST

10/04/2016 14:31

Myles JEFFERSON

08/04/2016 10:19

Finch Hatton 4756