I think this needs to happen as more and more the family units are being destroyed by government incentives and a backwards family law system geared to destroy. The result of this is going to only lead to more and more crime on our streets. Peoples homes should always be a safe place not a place where teenagers can rape and pillage at random. This bill would empower people in there homes and would put a stop to this madness. The buck stops here some thing must change before people start taking a vigilante stance and innocence are hurt as collateral. This bill is the 1st step to fixing the damage done to our nations young population. The next step I would recommend is fixing the family unit!! Give parents an incentive to raise their kids correctly.
