Dear Sir or Madame,

I would like to voice my concerns over the Queensland Community Safety Bill 2024.

Firstly it is a very large set of amendments and even the explanatory notes are over 100 pages. To bundle so many intricate and impounding amendments into one bill surely must come with risk.

Secondly the time frames surrounding this for consultation are extremely short when considering the complex nature and impacts across the community.

I would ask that these considerations are taken into account, the consultation period be adjusted accordingly to provide this bill with sufficient time to engage with the community.

The impacts of this may adversely affect some members of the community. They should be afforded the opportunity to understand any changes and implications.

regards

Mark O'Connell
