Submission

[REDACTED] has been at [REDACTED] for 7 years. She has liked her stay so far and feels like this is her home where she will remain. She enjoys knitting and gardening. She likes to work on the gardens on the property when she gets a chance. She has her own room but shares a bathroom. She enjoys the meals that are prepared for her. She feels that is good variety and nutritious. She said that if there is something that she doesn't like about the menu, then you just need to inform staff and they will see what else you may want to eat.

[REDACTED] spoke about the improvements to the property with the change in management. She could not recall when management changed but it was a positive change.

[REDACTED] said that complaints and conflicts are managed well within the house.
