Re: Public Health and Other Legislation (Extension of Expiring Provisions) Amendment Bill 2022

I am a mother of 3 amazing young adults. I work full time shift work and have been lucky to have worked throughout this pandemic and still have a job. Many of my friends and my own child, struggled with keeping a job or lost their job as a result of pandemic and mandates. Enough is enough!! There is no need for any emergency powers and they are not needed now let alone being extended. This is government overreach!

Other governments around the world are dropping all mandates, why is QLD parliament even considering this. There is no need as the pandemic is endemic and certainly not a threat to citizens.

The emergency powers should not have been granted and no longer are of any relevance given omicron and the opening of borders.

Sincerely

Jo Cora
