

From: Lay, Angus
To: Community Support and Services Committee
Cc: employment@ministerial.qld.gov.au
Subject: End the State of Emergency Powers
Date: Friday, 4 March 2022 8:44:23 AM
Attachments: image001.png

Hi, I am writing to voice my concerns about extending the emergency powers until October 2022, which I understand is being voted on today. There is no longer any reason to continue these powers and to do so would cause further damage and harm to the wider community.

Your vaccine mandates are abhorrent and unjust, and are a massive overreach by elected officials. Coercion is not informed consent.

Kind regards,

Angus Lay

[Redacted signature block]

Please consider the environment before printing.

This e-mail and any attachments to it are confidential. You must not use, disclose or act on the e-mail if you are not the intended recipient. If you have received this e-mail in error, please let us know by contacting the sender and deleting the original e-mail. Liability limited by a scheme approved under Professional Standards Legislation. Deloitte refers to a Deloitte member firm, one of its related entities, or Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited (“DTTL”). Each Deloitte member firm is a separate legal entity and a member of DTTL. DTTL does not provide services to clients. Please see www.deloitte.com/about to learn more. Nothing in this e-mail, nor any related attachments or communications or services, have any capacity to bind any other entity under the ‘Deloitte’ network of member firms (including those operating in Australia).