Dear Sir/Madam,

I reject the need for the Public Health and Other Legislation (Extension of Expiring Provisions) Amendment Bill 2022 to be extended. This Bill is not necessary as the threat of Covid 19 and the need for these measures are no longer adequate.

Businesses and people need to get on with life and we need to live with this disease as we do all other infectious diseases without constraint. The vaccines do not work and mandating people, businesses and organisations to get this false preventative is unjust.

Regards,

Esther O'Brien
