To whom it may concern.

I, Brett Rudkin of [REDACTED] wish to strongly object to the extension of the public health emergency bill.

It should never have been implemented from the start and now that all things have practically returned to how there were pre covid, the idea of this extension should be scrapped immediately.

There are absolutely no benefits to having this in place.

I speak on behalf of myself and my family who've endured this charade and hardship for 2 years now and it must end and normality must resume.

Kind Regards.

Brett Rudkin.
