

Education (General Provisions) Amendment Bill 2025

Submission No: 3
Submitted by: Paul Rogers
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

I am a stakeholder as I am a parent and family that currently chooses to home school our children. I strongly support the proposed amendments to s209 and 229A. Extending the cutoff from the year the child turns 17 to 18 gives Home education students the same opportunities as distance education students and on-site education students.