

Education (General Provisions) (Helping Families with School Costs) Amendment Bill 2023

Submission No: 28
Submitted by: Sarah Hackney
Publication: Making the submission and your name public

Attachments:

Submitter Comments:

I believe education should be free. There are so many costs associated with "free" public school including incursions/excursions, laptop, school camp, books/resources. With the cost of living crisis we are having to cut costs with extracurricular activities and I do not want my children to miss out on educational opportunities.