

Education (General Provisions) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2024

Submission No: 692
Submitted by: Denise Buckley
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

Families have been happily going about their business of finding other ways to educate their children & doing it successfully. Public education really can't boast great success in preparing children for adulthood. Some young people finish their schooling & can't even read or do mathematics well. So please leave homeschooling alone.