

Education (General Provisions) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2024

Submission No: 771
Submitted by: Reece Cook
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

Home schooling should be a free choice by anyone and everyone including people within the legal system, this would mean less people would not register their children with fears of government indoctrination through the schooling system.