Submitter Comments:

Leave our kids alone! Educate them according to the "three R's", not by indoctrinating them with radical, left-wing agendas. Let kids be kids, and allow them to form their own opinions in the fullness of time. In short, HAVE SOME RESPECT, CONSIDERATION, AND GENUINE CONCERN FOR PROVIDING CHILDREN WITH BALANCED, WELL-ROUNDED DEVELOPMENT. Teach them the truth, not some biased, mischievous, cherry-picked nonsense that skews the reality of our nation's history. Leave the grievance industry out of education, for it has no place in it, and it serves no meaningful purpose other than to distort and muddy the waters of reality. The education curriculum needs to return to the days when school was for genuine education, and worthy content was taught. Socially engineering impressionable young children is abuse, and that is not acceptable under any circumstances. Abuse of children should be punishable with a life sentence with no avenue for parole. Get real and get serious with the education of our children, or GET OUT of the system!
