I do NOT agree with the proposed changes to home-schooling. My daughter is learning English & Maths as per the Australian curriculum. All other subjects she is learning online and with text books, plus activities and real life experiences. I am home schooling my daughter as she was overwhelmed with high school. Not enough support & understanding for her. Plus having to do subjects she has No interest in. There is a great home-schooling community & network in Queensland. Maths & English only for everyone to learn. Other subjects as per personal interest. Please allow home-schooling to continue as it is. Yours sincerely.
