

Education (General Provisions) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2024

Submission No: 1140

Submitted by: [REDACTED]

Publication: Making the submission public but withholding your name

Attachments:

Submitter Comments:

The national curriculum is not suited for all persons and parents should be allowed to cater to their children's learning needs. The current reporting system is working and does not need to change.

Rather than forcing homeschooling families to adhere to the national curriculum, the curriculum should be reviewed for efficacy, relevancy and its contribution to creating a learned, intelligent, considerate and civilised country.