

Education (General Provisions) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2024

Submission No: 1243
Submitted by: Kevin Bird
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

I disagree with the changes proposed for the home schooling as no one knows their children as well as their parents. As we all know people have lost faith in the government as they don't do things in the best interests of the people. We have home schooled our children for several years and they are thriving and can fend for themselves and can think outside the box.