If i had to prove to you it is in my best interest to homeschool, then you would have to put me back into mainstream school so you can witness the decline of my mental health, and as such, you will see my physical health be affected. I would shut down, I would find life difficult. Your one-size-fits-all approach goes against my best interest. I want to be a successful, active member of society. With these proposed changes to homeschooling, you will make life so much harder for me and my family.Regards, [REDACTED]. 12 years old.
