

Education (General Provisions) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2024

Submission No: 1325

Submitted by: [REDACTED]

Publication: Making the submission public but withholding your name

Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

Parents should have the freedom to select a curriculum tailored to their child's needs, as the National Curriculum is structured for mass education rather than personalised learning environments. Instead of enforcing more regulations on homeschooling families, perhaps the Government should investigate the school system to address the reasons behind why so many students are leaving it. The current registration and reporting system seems to be functioning effectively.