

Education (General Provisions) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2024

Submission No: 1441
Submitted by: Stephanie Cartwright
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

I believe the proposed changes are detrimental to the homeschool community. Parents choose homeschool as a way of individualizing education for the best interest of their child. Mandating the entire curriculum for every homeschooled child takes away the personalised program that is best for them as an individual. Very disappointed to see that this is even a thought. Thank you for your time.