

Education (General Provisions) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2024

Submission No: 1491
Submitted by: Alec Munn
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

Families have the right to educate their children as they see fit. Homeschooling must be left as it is with as little government interference as possible. I object to any government dictating to parents what “must” be taught to their children. Schools no longer develop critical thinking skills or allow the right to question authoritarian edicts and societal issues. Let alone the ability to read, write and do simple mathematics.