

Education (General Provisions) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2024

Submission No: 1647
Submitted by: Larry Bell
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

1. Parents should be allowed to choose a curriculum that works for their child.2. The National Curriculum is designed for large classrooms of children, not for a personalized teaching environment.3. The current registration and reporting systems are working well and there is no need to change it.4. Instead of making more rules for families, the government should review the school system to determine why so many students are leaving it.