To The Committee,

My name is [REDACTED], I am 12 years old. Not all kids like public school they may be getting left behind and from experience i can tel you that is never fun. I did public school, then private school then homeschool and I am now doing distanc education. If you make some kids do public school, they will only be set back again and the problem many kids can't sit still long enuf to learn Australian curriculum. I think they need more play based learning. When i was grade 2 I was always sent to the prep class because I did not understand what we wear doing i strugld badly. But I started home school, mum and dad cought me up and I am an A B grade student now I don't know weir i would be if my mum did not home school me. Mum did not yell at me when she was teching me she was kind my techers were rude and angry with me.
