

Education (General Provisions) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2024

Submission No: 1799
Submitted by: Fiona Mayfield
Publication:
Attachments: No attachment
Submitter Comments:

From: [REDACTED]
To: Education, Employment, Training and Skills Committee
Subject: Homeschooling
Date: Sunday, 24 March 2024 3:53:03 PM

Homeschooling and how that is delivered and assessed must be at the complete control of the parent/s.

The school curriculum is out dated and delivered for groups of children which can render individuals to be left behind in their learning or worse good regulators of outdated models and governmental propaganda.

Homeschooling provides an education model that is curated specifically to a child's needs and ability. It is far superior and perhaps the reason government seeks out further control over it.

Fiona Mayfield

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]