Subject: Concerns Regarding Changes to Education (General Provisions) and other Legislation Amendment Bill 2024, Homeschooling.

Dear Committee

I object to the following points:

Guiding Principles: Who defines suitable? In regards to choosing a suitable educational environment.

Parents should continue to exercise their rights to determine how their child is educated.

Standardized Curriculum:

Parents should be able to choose and create customized curriculum according to the child's needs.

Removal of 60 day provisional registration:

This will disadvantage many who need to start homeschooling unexpectedly for the wellbeing of their child.

*Increased Reporting Expectation to demonstrate educational progress:
(Reporting on 8 different Key Learning Areas)*

This is far too much reporting, taking away from valuable learning/planning time with our children.

Thank you for your consideration.

Please could you redact my personal contact details from my submission before public posting, thank you.
