Lifts and accessibility in the Parliamentary Annexe Building

Visitors to the Parliamentary Annexe will experience some limitations to access around the building while we undertake some lift upgrades to improve public access. Between December 2018 and early May 2019 there will be no lifts operational for visitors to the Annexe on Parliamentary sitting days, unless visitors have mobility issues. Access to Annexe levels 4 and above will be by stairs only. Please advise security staff of mobility issues and appropriate arrangements will be made. We apologise for any inconvenience.
