Parliamentary Finance and Administrative Committee.

Dear Sirs/Mesdames,
we write to you concerning the length of parliamentary terms.
We believe that they should be fixed 4 year terms. The reasons are simple.
3 year terms are just too short for good governance.
Speculation as to when the next election will be held is removed - everyone knows when the election will be held. This in turn gives greater confidence to the public and business communities.
We urge you to recommend 4 year fixed parliamentary terms be introduced.
Yours faithfully,
Glen and Joy Vonhoff.
