Any person has the right to feel safe and protected as any industry worker where a transaction/payment/wage is made, therefore deemed a basic human right. Everybody deserves respect, ability to be heard and voice their opinions without being afraid of the consequences if their environment is not supportive. We should be protecting each other when we are vulnerable as a society to bridge the gap between poor education and plain ignorance. Moving forward we need to make changes for a safer more inclusive future. We now have the opportunity to make positive steps forward for each and every individual, that could be someone's sibling, child or parent that we cannot just ignore
