

Simple submission – ban cigarettes all together.

- 3,400 deaths in Queensland each year
- A health cost of > $30 billion each year (Australia)
- A revenue stream of only $ 3 billion, which is dwarfed by the health cost.
- A risk to mothers and unborn children
- A risk to cognitive brain development in all children subjected to passive smoking
- Social isolation and habit forming dependencies.

Mic Langburne