It is of great concern that the Attorney General and Minister for Justice introduced the Termination and pregnancy Bill on the 22. August 2018. It will have terrible consequences if the bill will go ahead.

The criminal Code currently makes it a crime to unlawfully terminate a woman's pregnancy. Offenders to the criminal code can result imprisonment to a maximum penalty of 14 years. This criminal code must not be changed. It was then murder and so it is now in 2018 and from generations to follow. A baby can't protect it self but it has the rights to live. Are those who are in agreement with the Abortion Bill have ever thought about their lives and thankful that they have not been aborted?
