To whom it may concern,

It seems, when it comes to unborn innocent children without a voice, love is not love. I say let the children live and have a future.

We must ensure adults are more responsible for their actions because unborn children should not be aborted for their ill decision-making.

This is why I do not support the new Abortion Bill, and will never support such inhumane treatment of medical staff, unborn children and everyone else who will be affected by such Bill should it pass in Parliament.

Best regards,
J Johannes Lehtonen
