Categories: Submission

I would like to express my concerns and urge that the Committee vote down this proposed Bill.

The value of Human Life has overtime simply been devalued to a point where we are now considering “one can just pop into hospital and get rid of the problem” and move on until the next time. This will surely lead to a further degradation of sexual promiscuity and disregard for the value of life.

Put simply, abortion is indeed murder of a human life.

I would urge a review into those who may have in the past performed abortions or indeed had an abortion, and then later in life be haunted by regret and guilt by their actions.

The torment on the conscious of these people could be relentless.

I have grave concerns that our society has now become so degenerate that our values of human life have moved even closer to extinction.

Kind Regards

Patricia Skinner
