To whom it may concern,

Dear Sirs/Mesdames

I wish to most vehemently object to this proposed bill before parliament.

My grounds are quite simply that upon conception a foetus has a heart, and to kill this heart amounts to nothing less than MURDER.

I consider all life as important, and no person can play judge and jury over a life just because it has no voice.

I urge all members to vote against this horrendous motion,

Thankyou, Joanne Halliday
