To Whom it May Concern:

I am starting to get fed up with this increased push for down right murder. Killing an unborn child is murder. The spirit enters the child at conception and after that it is a child. It is bad enough that we allow abortion for any term, to actually remove abortion from the Queensland Criminal Code altogether. It is a crime for a reason and it should remain a crime. If you have sex and fall pregnant, take the child to term and if you do not want it adopt it out. Don't kill it.

Also stop this barrage of anti-human bills altogether, i.e. same-sex marriage and abortion. They are both and others akin to them all abominations and should not even get a second look at.

Do not even give this bill any time whatsoever, just ignore it and reject it on Friday 26 August 2016. Full stop!
