Chris Pine,s proposed Change to Abortion Law
Saturday, 25 June 2016 9:02:54 AM

I wish to state my complete opposition to change to abortion law in this state or indeed anywhere in our Country.

I am 67 yrs of age, and the mother of 4 beautiful children,15 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren. All of whom are and will be a blessing to us and their country.

3 years into my first marriage when discovering a third pregnancy was in process, the subject of abortion was discussed. We had a son and a daughter, the perfect pair just 13 months apart, and although my husband had a good income, it was not huge, it "made sense" to "terminate" this pregnancy until we had made a better start to our financial future and the financial future of our 2 children.

I was at the doctor,s surgery actually on the table when all the "alarm bells" rang. I could not put an end to the new life growing within. It was the last chance for that "voice" to be heard. No matter which way I looked at it "Thou shalt not kill" roared through my whole body, and I knew I could not live with the guilt of ending a perfectly healthy life.

It is not "Popular" to claim to be a Christian in this day and age. However I grew up in a Nation proud to be known as A Christian Nation. There were 10 strong rules to follow, all of which were taught in our "Primary Schools" not just Home and Church.

These covered all decisions we may have to confront in our lives. I am proud to say that precious gift of another son and later another daughter proved to be not just great for our lives, but for all whom their lives have affected. We did not starve, they all had good educations and are serving their country still as very effective citizens.

Sorry Mr Pine but after many right decisions I believe you have this one wrong. Please search your hearts and do what is right, not what is "popular" As parents we make the hard decisions not through "I want" but what is "Righteous for all,Wise and Just"

Sincerely,
Carol J Gram.
