The value of any civil society is measured by its treatment of the most vulnerable. No one is more vulnerable than the helpless and precious new life of a human being not yet born.

If this bill is passed, it will set a standard so low, so dangerous, so evil, that the society formed by it may as well have no legal system at all.

Please consider the long term damaging effects, not only to the rights of the unborn, but also the psychological fallout and trauma of all involved in this criminal act as the law justly stands now.

Remember, the 'scales of justice' are weighted against the defenceless.

Thank you for seriously looking into this Bill.

Yours sincerely,
Lynette van der Meulen
