To whom it may concern

I am so against the proposed abortion law reform that has no safeguards or boundaries in place. I am very concerned that abortion will be permitted even as late as the third semester, in fact, right up until the day before birth. I believe it is called murder, but as it will be done before the baby has drawn breath, it will be passed off as OK under the law.

Actually, I am appalled that a Bill such as this has even been permitted to be tabled in Parliament. It is my hope that this Bill will be rejected as soon as possible.
