I am a mother, a daughter, a grandmother, a sister, and a wife! I have never had to have an abortion, but I can't see how it could bring anything but pain, grief, shame, fear, and possibly long-term suffering, both physically and emotionally! This has to be looked at from all aspects, including the mother, the father, the wider family - and the growing baby!

This tiny human should have an advocate in this argument, just as a thief, or a stalker, or any other person that needs support or encouragement.
