To whom it may concern,

I am writing this email to voice my opposition to the proposed abortion laws of decriminalising abortion in Queensland.

If these laws were to be passed without any modification to what is being proposed, this would give Queensland the worst (or strongest) abortion laws in the world, where potentially a baby who is only one day from being birthed could be aborted without any ramifications.

This is, in my opinion, very out of touch with the general public of Queensland and what they want in relation with abortion laws and would be a black mark against our wonderful state. Not to mention also being at odds with many other current laws in Queensland. (I refer to instances where a person can be charged in Queensland for not only assault to a pregnant woman but also to causing harm to her unborn baby)

Again I would like to strongly voice my disapproval to the proposed abortion laws and would encourage the parliamentarians and law makers to throw out these terrible proposed changes.

yours sincerely
