With respect, I wish to state my strong opposition to the Abortion Law Reform bill introduced by Mr. Rob Pyne. It's disingenuous of anyone citing cases of the need to terminate a pregnancy because of a mother's severe health issues. The current law clearly provides adequately for such exceptions. But this bill would authorise murdering fully viable defenceless human beings just because they cannot speak up for themselves. The matter, in recent times, of 27 living, breathing babies being left to die as trash shows how far we have sunk into Hitler's mentality. Get rid of the inconvenient! It's easier, but it's not true compassion and it blunts our collective conscience.

Sincerely,

Olive Woodford
