To the Parliamentary Committee on Abortion Law Reform,

I wish to voice my opposition in the strongest possible terms to the proposed Reforms of Abortion Law in Queensland.

As a Christian I am opposed to the changes to the current legislation that are likely to be introduced shortly into the Queensland Parliament.

Abortion can already be carried out in Queensland. In 2014, I understand that 10,000 abortions were carried out in this state.

I believe Queensland Women and the Community are looking for better options than Abortions which lead to terrible consequences for both mother and child. These proposed reforms will allow fully developed babies to be killed up to just hours or days prior to their birth. That surely is the taking of lives from those who can't defend themselves.

Introducing safeguards for women, such as independent counselling, cooling off periods and parental consent as well as conscientious provisions for Doctors and Nurses would, in my view, be more beneficial.

I implore you to not bring in these proposed Abortion Law Reforms which, in fact, will lead to the killing of more defenceless babies.

Yours sincerely

John Hollamby
