To whom it may concern

I am writing to you about the 'Abortion Law Reform (Women's Right to Choose) Amendment Bill 2016 and Inquiry into laws governing termination of pregnancy in Queensland'.

Babies when conceived are in secret. Intricately, purposefully, delicately being formed. All of their being, personality, traits, appearance forming in secret. Do they feel? Yes, as soon as their nerve cells are formed which is within the first few weeks of conception. A complete human is formed by 12 weeks.

Birth is about life and life is for living. Living in hope, with purpose, potential and destiny. What if Beethoven, Thomas Edison, Alexander Bell or Leonarda da Vinci's mothers ended their pregnancies?

How can we who are already born make a choice for the unborn? They don't have a voice. All they know is, they are safe, protected, nourished and alive. None of us would be alive today if our mothers chose to end our lives within the womb. Changing this law is making murder legal. Yet, 'murder' in Australia is a serious criminal offence and unlawful.

I believe that:

- [if !supportLists]-->1. <!--[endif]-->It is wrong to murder a person.
- [if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->The unborn is a person
- [if !supportLists]-->3. <!--[endif]-->Therefore, it is wrong to murder the unborn.

Thank you for taking the time to read my opinion.

Yours sincerely

Francene Moses
