Re: What did you think would happen?

Dear QLD Health Committee,

For years now, Queensland Government schools have been indoctrinating kids, telling them their gender is fluid and not based on biology.

What else can we expect than to have a growing number of kids feeling confused about their gender.

Now the Queensland Government wants to make it a crime for doctors and nurses to do anything other than affirm these poor kids' confusion.

The Queensland Government's so-called 'gay conversion therapy ban' is a dangerous law and I am asking you to reject it.

This Bill would make it a criminal offence for a medical practitioner to adopt a 'wait and see' approach if a patient presented and said they were confused about their gender.

This new law would mean the doctor or medical professional would be compelled to put that patient on a pathway towards irreversible sex change surgery or harmful hormone treatments.

Sincerely,

Russell Grigg, M.Sc.(Hons)

Sincerely,
Russell Grigg
