To Whom It May Concern,

I believe it is a women's right to decide whether she gives birth to a child or not.

Reasons Being:

*Once a mother, always a mother. If it is not the desired choice of the women in the first place (because of instances including, rape, accidents) and she has deemed herself unable to carry out the duty & responsibilities of being a mother, why make her do it?

*Accidents happen. A child needs a great start in life and if a woman feels she cannot provide for the child, there's no point in giving birth only to give it up to somebody else and the child always being burdened with the questions surrounding their biological mother.

Life is a choice. Don't make it impossible to choose it.

Thankyou for your consideration.

Regards, Emily Hallas
